Facts On Charter Commission Candidates

The following information on the candidates for the charter commission was collected and compiled by the League of Women Voters of Farmington City and Township. The League City and Township. The League alever supports or opposes any political party or candidate, Questionnaires were sent to the candidates to obtain this information which the League (cit was of interest to the voters. Publication, of candidates is and optaions of candidates and optaions of candidates is to the voter and in no way is to be furnithment of the control of

Mile tandidates were asked as a second of the first way of the state of the second of the state of the state of the second of the state of th

Nylo Archer
Nylo Archer, 3875 Quaker Valley Rd, attended University of Detroit and is a real estate broker for Archer Realty. She has been on the plans approval committee for Quaker Valley Farms Association. She states
"Knowledge acquired through for the sale of local real estate in all parts of the township has served to make me aware of those things that enhance and preserve the value of our property and make Farmington an outstanding community." Joseph T. Brennan. 2949

Joseph T. Brennan. 2949

Lestflield, has a bachelor of laws degree from the University of Derivit and is a self-employed practicing attorney. Previously he was a department manager for Standard Accident Insurance Co. He is a past president of the Farmington Exchange Club and of the Clen-Oaks Subdivision Association. Association. Association as place on the charter commission he wrote, "I specialize in municipal law, presently representing four communities in Oakland and Livingston Counities. I am a member of the Michigan Society of planning officials and a member of the Decorporation of the Michigan State Bar Association. During the period is considered in the proposed of the Michigan State Bar Association. During the period is considered in the proposed of the Michigan State Bar Association. During the period is committee appointed to review the subject of incorporation."

NYLA ARCHER

1.) One that would provide the greatest number of necessary services for the most conservative expenditure of tax dollars possible.

2.7 Until 1 had made a thorough study of the charters of neighboring Mindigan cities I register to be suppossible to the service of the service o

Elise P. Avery

Elise P. Avery.

Elise S. Avery.

Elise S. Elise

Elise S. Elise

Elise

Elise S. Elise

Elis

Elise

Elise

Elise

Elise

Elise

Elise

Elise

Elise

Elise

ELISE P. AVERY

1.) Strong Mayor type of government with council, both directly responsible to the people.

2.) (a) Conservative millage limitation.

limitation:

(b) Continue special assessments for improvements making on ly those using the improvements responsible for same.

(c) An elected municipal Judge, making more effective police protection.

(d) Partisan elections.

John I. Bain

JOHN 1. DCIN
John J. Bain 2033 Springfield, has a bachelor of science degree from Wayne State University, and an LLB from the partic College of Law. He assistant prosecuting attorney for Oakland County and was previously a salesman for Sun OII Co. He feets that his interest in good government as were an his legal county and the form of the control of the college than the commission of the charter commission.

) Charter must: Guarantee the right of Ini-tiative and Referendum by the citizens. Capital improvements to be financed by Special As-sessment District and not by General Obligation Bonds.

3. Low tax limitation to main-tain a minimum of ser-

Floyd A. Cairns

JOIN I. BAIN

1.) One of the strong MayorCouncil type, While there is much to be said for other types, it seems that this variety is the type of the citizens of the community.

2.) A realistic but reasonable limit on millage, Civil Service for employees to insure and uqualified employees for the community and also to afford a degree of protection for both a regree of protection for both present and fourge employees.

Joseph T. Brennan

Joseph T. Brennan, 2959

Jo

with the problems of our community.

1.) If elected, I would like to study with those elected as to the best form of government before giving any opinion.

2.) (a) A realistic low tax limitation to provide the best form of government of the community.

(b) Charter provisions which will provide for the rural character of the community.

(c) Provisions to retain our present high level form of zoning so as to prevent over crowding of our school system and preserve our favorable tax base.

Bruce E. Duke

Bruce E. Duke
Bruce E. Duke, 27714 Forestbrook, attended Redford High School and is a self-employed builder. He is currently chapter leader of the John Birch Socitey, He feels that his business associations as a general contractor make him an acceptable candidate for the charter commission.

commission.

1.) To follow township form of government in the new charter, with emphasis on individual citizen control.

2.) Capital Improvement over $500.00 approved by a vote of whole city or district affected.

Thomas A. Duke

Thomas A. Duke, 2753 Forestirook Dr., attended Highland Park Junior College and ispresently a self-employed land developer. He is past president of the Experiment Club and the Committee. In describing its qualification, as a charter commission member he includes "local government experience, five years on the Township board, several months of research on the incorporation study group, and a knowledgeshilty of finance which would contribute to a charter designed to meet the reasonable financial solity of the proposed incorporation area." JOSEPH T. BRENNAN

1.) Deprenally lean oward
the content of the co

Robert L. Brown

THOMAS A. DURE

1.) The chuncil-manager form, providing for: non partian council, popularly elected at large, with the mayor selected by the council.

2.) (a) Initiative, referendum, and recall.

(b) Four year terms for constant of the council of

Ronald G. Enders ROBERT LEWIS BROWN
1.) A Government that would
1. A Government that the
1. A Government that the
1. A Government that the
1. A Government that would
1. A Government that the
1. A Government that would
1. A Gove

c) Use every effort to con-trol the growth of our area.

d) Maintain our present rur-al atmosphere.

ministion.

1.) Did not reply.

2.) I am not interested in changing to a city, I advised the people who signed my petition of this stating that if the charter commission did pass we could possibly be represented on the board and, again, possibly keep things running close to the township as we could.

close to the township as we could.

Charles W. Fritz, 28251 Wildwood Trail, has a bachelor of inclence degree and its currently working on a master's degree and its currently working on a master's degree as a plant manager for Perfection lieal Treating Co, where he has previously been vice-president and general manager. He is a past president of Woodhine Improvement Association and a member of the pre-incorporation study group. In stating his qualifications for the centiles study group, in stating his qualifications for the centiles member of the study commission. I have had the opportunity of investigating the many problems regarding the incorporation issue. Being a neo-phyte in local government, I have found that my business background has proved invalued to the charter commission."

Ervin J. Knight

Ervin J. Knight 2009 Ravenscrut, attended Lawrence Institute of Technology, Duquesne and Indiana Universities. He is administrator of industrial relations for Burroughs Corp. and was formerly manager of personnel and industrial relations for Massey - Ferguson, Inc. He feels that his business experience of the control of

Norman Kreider

CHARLES W. FRITZ

1.) We should have a city fowers interest which has clear lines of authority. I believe that we consider the most efficient type of city government for our community would be a Council-Manager form of government.

2.) We should have Charting which can best earry to completion the "Planned Commanity" which is the present our Township Government.

Litzens are recognised but the charting with the courted and tax immittations to effect an orderly growth.

Richard H. Goul; Richard H. Gaul, 2875 Longare, has a high school diploms and has taken additional course in buttness, sales, and management. He is superintendent of General Motors, the is now building committee member of Woodcroft Civic Association and has been president, vice-president and secretary of that organization. As a superintendent at Gadillac motor, he feels that he has had the experience of being responsible for the web buttness and personal judgment are sound, that he has had personal judgment are sound, that he has had reprience in the administration of rules, regulations, and contracts. He further feels that he has enough interfeels that he has enough the heart had been a heart he had heart he ha Richard H. Gaul:

(b) Four year terms for council.

(c) Specific department all organization and functions.

1) To achieve community continues the propertion, L believe me should have a non-partisin government by special assessment districts.

(e) In effect, a detailed for the council continuer and the council continuer

Richard J. Hart, 38273 Tralec Trail, Northville, has a bach-elor of arts degree from Michl-gan State University and is product representative for Hydra-matic division of General Motors Corp. where he ws Douglas A. McArthur, 21218 formerly reliability engineer St. Francia, is a graduate of and foreman supervisor of tech Farmingion High School and a nobard of directors of Meadow brook Hills, Subdivision. Douglas A. McArthur, 21218 St. Francis, is a graduate of Farmington High School and a 30-year resident of the Township. He is self-employed in the construction business and was previously a forman carpent. He has been president and vicerties the president of a PTA unit and on the review board of the Township. A strong desire to improve the community motivates him to become a member of the charter commission.

Any Warren E. Hansen

Warren E. Hansen

Warren E. Hansen, 37922

I. Rhonswood Dr., attended Michsis igan State University and is lupresident of Mr. Swiss of the Lakes, Inc. He was previously ce an estimator for Hydro Manufacturing Co. He is currently livice president of Meadowbrook Hills Honeowner' Association, and feels that in aix years as feels that in aix years as propensity.

Mick C. Mondell

Nick C. Mondella
Nick Charles Mondella, 2931
Moodbrook Rd, attended Wayne
State University, Lawrence Tech, and Detroit College of Appilled Science. He is president of Unit-He Tool Sales, Inc.
where he was formerly a sales
ent of Unit-He Tool Sales, Inc.
where he was formerly a sales
ent of Unit-He Tool Sales, Inc.
where he was formerly a sales
ent of the tool Sales, Inc.
where he was formerly a sales
ent of the sales
ent of the sales
ent commission as he is a student of governmental affairs interested in good government for the community.

1.) City Manager Type.
2.) (a) No taxing power to the administration without approval of voters.
(b) All reconing should be submitted to the elizens for approval.
(c) No broader power than officials of (ownship habet
distributed to the commission of the sales entire the sales of the sales
entire the sales of the sales
entire the sales of the sales
entire the sales
ent

Clifford Moorhead S mm t ERVIN J. KNIGHT

1.) A mayor type of government.

2) (a) A tax limitation.

(b) A charter written which would provide for maximum expression of the residents at the polls. Norman Kreider
Norman E. Kreider, 2005
Millhrook Rd., attended Wynze State University and ChryslerInstitute of Engineering. He is vice- president of automotive sales for RIC Products Corp.
He has been sales manager of ror Sam T. Keller Co., and district manager of DeSto division of Chrysler Corp. He has been president of the Village of Wood Creek Farms for several years and has been a council member and the control of the control of the manager of the control of the manager of the three controls min available addition to the charter commission.

an opinion in this regard, as I have not given this aspect of the question of incorporation detailed study; consequently, I would treat this without any pre-conceived ideas.

2.) (a) Lines of authority and defined.
(b) Two limits in the control of the control o defined.

(b) Tax limitation geared to only the services deemed necessary by the majority of the cit-the majority of the cit-tiens.

(c) No income tax.

(d) Improvements provid-ed by special assess-ments from those that benefit.

(e) Retain the petition re-quired for those as-sessments.

Thomas R. Nolan

Thomas R. Nolan, 22180 OnThomas R. Nolan, 22180 Ontaga Ct., has attended college for two years and is district ales manager for Transportation Service Inc. He is past president of Forest Park Homeowners Association, and Farmington Dads' Grest Park Homeowners Association, and Farmington Dads' Clink Junior Re read to the Company of the Company to the C

THOMAS R. NOLAN

1.) I wish to keep an open mide from the commission mide from the commission of the charter. Charter Commission resould represent the people rather than dictate his own views. Most of the information I have read indicates the experts in government recommend the council - manager form. While I will not take a form inclined to lean in this direction.

2.) Low tax limitation. Improvements by special city employees.

Clifford Moorhead example of the common sense and logical for the common sense and logical reasoning in given stitution to the common sense and logical reasoning in given situation to the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations. My experience a varing on the perspectation of the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations. The commonly given to the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations. The common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are common sense and logical reasoning in given situations. The common sense and logical reasoning in given situations. The common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are common sense and logical reasoning in given situations. The common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are commonly given to candidates.

My experience avaring on the present of the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations. The common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are commonly given to candidates.

My experience avaring on the present of the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are commonly given to candidates.

My experience avaring on the present of the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are commonly given to candidates.

My experience avaring on the present of the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are commonly given to candidates.

My experience avaring on the present of the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are commonly given to candidates.

My experience avaring on the present of the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are commonly given to candidates.

My experience avaring on the present of the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are commonly given to candidates.

My experience avaring on the present of the common sense and logical reasoning in given situations are commonly given to candidates.

1.) I have not yet committed my given situations are common sense and lo

Russell Nankervis

responsibility are vested in one individual.

2.) (a) Low tax limitation.
(b) Local improvements by creation of special assessment districts so those who benefit from improvements pay for them.
(c) Provisions for cooling will effectly will effectly will be the cooling to the cooling of the cooling will be the cooling to the cooling of the cooling will be the cooling to the cooling of the cooling will be cooling to the cooling of the cooling the cooling of the cooling

Eva Elizabeth Ross

Eva Elizabeth Ross, 21401.
Purdue, attended college for two years and is bookkeeper for Bentley Tool, Inc. She was justice of the peace from 1921 through 1928. She is vice-president of the Farmington Historical Society, treasurer of the Pioneer Golden Age Club, a member of St. Alexander's Church and the Farmington Democratic Club, Her qualifications statement reads, "I am a donation to the peace and on such community affairs. My service as justice of the peace and on such community groups as the historical society and Golden Age Club gives me the insight to serve on a commission which will determine what form of government we are to have."

EVA E. ROSS

1.) I am opposed to incorporation at present time because the need for cityhood has not been established. If we must become a city I would favor foining with the present City of Participation of the present City of Participation of the Company of t where than dictate his own have read indicates the extring overament recommend the council most lake as maniform of the council most lake as minimized to lean in this cellon.

Margaret Schaeffer

Low tax limitation. Improvements by special assessments.

Simplicity and understandability.

F. Opperthouser and the firm Groefsem a partner in the firm Groefsem the firm Groefsem a partner in the firm Groefsem to consider the firm Groefsem a partner in the firm Groefsem a partner in the firm Groefsem to consider the firm Groefsem and the firm Groefsem a partner in the firm Groefsem to consider the firm Groefsem and the constant of the Groefsem and the Constant of the Groefsem and the Constant of the American As a member of the Detroil Bar Association, is past in the firm Groefsem and the Detroil Bar Association, is past in the firm Groefsem and the Detroil Bar Association, is past in the firm Groefsem and the Detroil Bar Association, is past in the firm Groefsem and the Detroil Bar Association of the Groefsem and the Detroil Bar A

MARGARET G. SCAEFFER
1.) A government of limited powers to preserve as much as possible the large degree of direct control by the people that township government offers.
2.) Limitation of taxing power so that homeownrs will not be burdened by excessive taxes.

