Girl Scout News

BY AMY CHARRON 474-9713

"Keep this Star shining bright." These two friendly circles were formed with a flowered archway with colored lights between.

The girls about to become new Juniors were met by Carolyn Hileman who brought them to Mrs. Charron. The songs presented, and with a final salute each girl passed through the archway to be met by Paula Charron and taken to Junior troop leader Mrs. Russell Cleveland who heard her repeat the Girl Scout promise, and then planned her.

When girls were planned they were taken into the Junior friendship ring. Junior girls said "Hello", and then Mrs. Charron led all around the room, under the archway all singing "Make New Friends." The new Juniors are Diane Dorman and Deanne Roe. Absent from the ceremony were Carrie MacAlister, who is moving to Gill School, and Debra Tomecek. Their wings, star and pin were sent to them.

The girls and their mothers surprised Mrs. Charron with a farewell and birthday cake, and presented her with a gift certificate.

Mrs. Charron thanks all her mothers for their help this past year. Two Junior scouts also have been a real help, Paula Charron of 1036, and Mary Ann Lueder of troop 363.

The remaining Brownies are: Karen Babcock, Jennifer Balze, Wendy Burkens, Cathy Callahan, Nancy Crockett, Peggy Haller, Kathy Homler, Brenda Jackson, Roman Lueder, Linda Martin, Marjorie Morris, Sharon Perrod, Helen

Mayfair Bridge To Continue

The Mayfair Duplicate Bridge Friday evening game will continue straight through the summer months, both outdoors and indoors. The game is held at the home of Al and Marian Collins until after Labor Day. The last Tuesday game of the summer will be a master point game held on July 19, at 7:45 p.m., at the regular Mayfair bridge quarters above the Northwest Bowling Lanes, 32905 Northwestern Hwy. The room is air-conditioned.

The last Thursday evening game for the summer will be held at 400 E. Lincoln, Birmingham, on July 14 at 7:45 p.m. It is a master point game also.

Plans are under way for some changes in the format of the games this fall.
