Farmington Enterprise Newsboy Of The Week

Dave Helst, Enterprise newsboy of the week, is the 15 year old son of Burton and Mildred Helst. He lives with his parents, brothers Gary and Richard, and sister Janet at 34556 Oakland in the city.

He will enter the 10th grade at Farmington High School this fall. His route includes 112 customers on Longacre, Arundel, Whittaker, Grand River, Oakland, Wesley, State, Cortland, Gill and Earl Court.

Dave has lived around these parts for 14 years and lists as his hobbies stamp and coin collecting.

Like most boys, he is enthusiastic about most sports preferring swimming, skiing, baseball and tennis.

He also finds a lot of pleasure in camping and horseback riding. Dave hopes to become an engineer some day.

Plaza Hot Dog Sale To Aid Little League

Mr. T. Redick, Manager of the Sams Store, announced the Farmington Plaza Association would again have the 5¢ hot dog sale during the Founders' Day celebration. He further stated that several of the merchants would again offer outstanding sale items during Founders' Festival Week.

Sale of hot dogs and Pepsi Cola will be jointly handled by the North and South Farmington Little League personnel. All proceeds from the sale will be equally divided between the two baseball organizations. The sale will be held on July 28, 29 and 30 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. daily from a booth located in the Farmington Plaza directly in front of the Sams Store.
