Nat'l League Names Top 3 Teams For '66

The National League Minors completed their season on July 26, finishing with the Pirates, Phillies and Mets on top in that order, the same three teams who took top honors for the first half that ended June 15.

The week began with a 9-4 win by the Phillies over the Pirates, using the combination of Bill Witek and Mike Combes on the mound and when DeHaan belted the plate. Richard Morley went 3 for 3 in the batter's box for the Phillies, as did pitcher Combes, whose hits included a home run. On the hill for the Pirates were Brian Albertson, John Suetterlin and Curt Stephenson, caught by Erik Rogind.

Tuesday's contest included a cliff hanger by the Braves and Mets, a 2-2 tie at the end of 6 innings. The Braves took it in the 7th on a single by Brad Clark and a homer by Doug Johnson. Winning pitchers were Craig Altar, Erik Paus, (who homered in the 5th) Mike Alber, with Lon Steward and Craig Alter as back-up men. Taking the loss were Doug Rosman, Joey D'Agostino and Mike Banerott, backed by Dennis McCarray.

The Giants trounced the hapless Cards 24-8 using pitchers Ben Bailey and Steven Ridsdop, caught by Jim Ackroyd and Dick DeHaan. Ackroyd, incidentally, managed 4 straight singles in 4 trips at bat. The Cardinals did some hard hitting in an attempt to turn the tide including a homer and a triple by Harris, a homer by Davis and a homer by Klein. All to no avail, as Brock Klein and Don Slaaks, caught by Keith Harris and Brian Standley, took the loss.

Tuesday's third contest was a make-up game from July 12, in which the Astros bested the
