Farmington Rites Unite Susan Graham, S.R. Newton

Susan Graham of 31295 Orchard Lake Rd., Farmington, spoke her marriage vows to Stephan Richard Newton of Grand Rapids at Orchard Methodist Church of Farmington on July 23 at 7:30 p.m. candlelight service.

Mrs. Stephan Richard Newton

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Newton of Grand Rapids.

The bride's gown was a silk organza sheath with a bateau neckline applied with Alencon lace and pearls, the lace was used also on the short bell shaped sleeves and was repeated on the skirt and on the chapel length train. Her illusion veil was attached to a petal shaped lace and pearl head piece and she carried a Cathedral bouquet of white asters and stephanotis. Miss Pamela Graham, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. Her gown was floor length wedgewood blue linen with full length white crepe insert, a redingote effect and had white Venice lace trim, bell-shaped sleeves and a bateau neckline. A matching pill-box with Venice lace trim completed her costume. Her flowers were a full crescent of purple asters.

Mrs. Arthur L'Abbe of Chippewa Falls, Massachusetts, attended her sister also as did Miss Karen Hardisty, a friend of the bride from Grand Rapids. Gowns of both attendants matched the maid of honors, as did their flowers.

The bride's mother chose a blue shift with lace shell and white accessories and her corsage was of gardenias and blue stephanotis.

A blue ensemble was the groom's mother's choice. She wore her gardenias on a lovely white bag.

Mr. Richard Cole of Grand Rapids attended the bridegroom as best man, and ushers were David Allen of Wyoming, George Smith of Farmington and Charles Dawson of Hanoula, Illinois.

Miss Karen Hardisty, played a double role by being an attendant to the bride and soloist. The organist was a friend of the bride's, Miss Mary Ellen Andre of Grand Rapids. A reception was held in the church following the ceremony. The cake was cut by Miss Carol Graham and assisted with the serving were Miss Linda Miller, Miss Peggy Owens and Mrs. Burgess Coleman.

Miss Jean Miller of Southfield presided over the guest book. For her traveling dress, the bride chose a Navy and white knit suit. The bride is a June graduate of Western Michigan University with a bachelor of music degree. She was a member of Kappa Phi.

Patricia Ayers Weds Kenneth Binkley

Patricia Ann Ayers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Ayers, of 21619 Tulane, Farmington, became the bride of Kenneth Austin Binkley at 7:30 on July 23 at First Methodist Church. Rev. David Stone read the marriage service for the double ring ceremony. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Elmo H. Binkley of Wayne, Michigan.

For her gown, the bride selected a long sleeved A-line gown of silk organza applied with lace trimmed in seed pearls. Her flowers were white miniature carnations and stephanotis.

Meriam Grainer attended the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were her sister, Nancy Ayers, and Carol Griffin, all of Farmington.

The bride was given in marriage by her father in a setting of white gladiolus and chrysanthemums. Ronald K. Johnson of Scottville, Michigan assisted the bridegroom as best man, and ushers were Andrew Armstrong of Evanston, Illinois and Dennis Frye of Bangor, Michigan.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Church fellowship hall, after which the bridal pair left for a trip to New York City.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Farmington High School and attended Michigan State University. She is now employed by Delta Airlines.
