Ziegler-Salay Vows Spoken In Candlelight Ceremony

Jean Marie Ziegler spoke her wedding vows to Richard Eugene Salay at Westminster Church in Detroit on July 30, at 7 p.m. in a candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ziegler of Vaughn Avenue, Detroit; and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Salay of Glencreek Drive, Farmington.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD EUGENE SALAY

The bride presented a memorable picture in her gown of white silk organza, bleeded with Alencon lace. Pearl tracery frosted the lace which etched a floral motif, defining the high-rise waistline and tipping the long sleeves of the bodice. Alencon lace encircled the hem of the skirt which flared with backswept fullness and an empress train flowed from a double rose bustle.

A cluster of silken petals formed into a rose held her tiered veil of filmy illusion. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

MISS MARY ANN Morandi was maid of honor and the bridesmaid was Mrs. Charles Gaudette, both of Detroit. They wore floor length empress gowns of delicate pink crepe, with matching veils. Pink and red shades of carnations formed their bouquets.

Mrs. Ziegler, mother of the bride, wore an avacado green chiffon gown. The bridegroom's mother chose a gown of light turquoise crepe with a cotton lace bodice. Both wore white orchid corsages.

Robert John Salay attended his brother as best man and the ushers were Thomas Tleche of New York City, formerly of Farmington; Michael Jurca of Bloomfield Hills; and Celis Koons of Detroit.

A RECEPTION WAS held at Vladimers following the ceremony.

The bride is a Wayne State University graduate and is teaching at the Fisher School in Redford. Her husband is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is an art director at McManus, John and Adams in Bloomfield Hills.

The couple are touring to California on their honeymoon and plan to reside in Royal Oak when they return.

Lunch Supervisors Confer At Boyne Mt.

The second annual conference at Boyne Mountain of school lunch supervisors August 29 to 31, will feature seven Oakland County people. Miss Vera Jehnsen, director of school food service for Oakland Schools, will hold three classess in the ways of enlisting faculty and community support for the school nutrition program.

Effective training for new employees will be discussed by a panel composed of Mrs. Shirley McCoy, Mrs. Ella Pilchta, and Miss Barbara Wilson, the school lunch supervisors of Waterford, Farmington and Pontiac, respectively.

Sherry May Hendricks Wed At Orchard Meth.

Sherry May Hendricks, daughter of Mrs. Jean M. Hendricks, Old Greenwich, Conn. and Frank W. Hendricks, New York City, became the bride of Douglas George Wood at Orchard Methodist Church, Farmington on August 12. Rev. Frank A. Cozadd officiated at the 8 p.m. double ring ceremony. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Wood, 30060 Eastfield, Farmington.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white silk organza with a high scooped neckline and belle skirt. Re-embroidered Alencon lace trimmed the short sleeves and detachable chapel train. Her imported silk illusion veil was arranged from a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

MRS. DOUGLAS GEORGE WOOD

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Rebecca Saundry; her bridesmaid was Carla Wood. Both are residents of Farmington. Their gowns of deep pink crepe were styled on Empire lines. They wore matching shoes and headpieces and carried Colonial bouquets of pale pink cymbidium.

Brett W. Hendricks of Old Greenwich was the bridegroom's best man. His ushers were Clifford D. Allen and Gordon B. Hendricks.

Mark Atkin was at the organ with Mrs. Norman Barber as vocal soloist.

The bride attended North Farmington High School but was graduated from Greenwich High School. She will attend Grand Rapids Junior College this fall.

The bridegroom now attends that college and was graduated from North Farmington High School.

Following a wedding trip through Canada, the couple will reside in Grand Rapids.

Sandra Walter Earns Degree

Dr. Maurice F. Seay, associate dean of the School of Education at Michigan State University, addressed Western Michigan University graduates at commencement ceremonies scheduled for 6 p.m. on Friday, August 12, in the university's Waldo Stadium.

A former chairman of the Education Department at the University of Chicago, Dr. Seay will speak on "A New Dependence Upon Social Science." He was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree by Western Michigan University during the program.

Sandra Kay Walter, 26344 Greythorne Trail was among the more than 2,000 students who will receive diplomas in the Friday evening ceremonies. She will receive her bachelor of arts degree.
