Tawyea-Rahaim Wed At Nuptial Mass

At a nuptial mass in Saint Agatha's Church, on Oct. 15, Dianne Marie Tawyea became the bride of Joseph S. Rahaim, the groom's sister, and Kathleen and Denise Tawyea, sisters of the bride. They wore emerald green velvet gowns with bell skirts and brocade ribbon trim. Their veils were caught by velvet bows.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne J. Tawyea, Herndonwood Drive, Farmington, was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory satin gown with Alencon lace appliques on the empire bodice and chapel train. Her illusion veil fell from a crown of lace accented with seed pearls and crystals. She carried white roses.

The bridesmaids carried nosegays of white lace, pink speech-art roses, and baby's breath. The maid of honor carried an arrangement of pink roses and carnations. Rahaim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rahaim of Southfield. His brother, Samuel, stood as proxy best man for another brother, Daniel, who is in the service. The ushers were Edward Tawyea, brother of the bride, Gerald Schell and Michael Brennan.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Tawyea chose an ensemble of mint green silk with matching accessories. Mrs. Rahaim, the bride-groom's mother, wore a powder blue crepe and lace jacket-dress. Both mothers wore white orchids.

When they return from a trip to upper Canada, the newlyweds will make their home in Detroit.
