

Auto Show Due To Set Record

The 51st Detroit Auto Show will be a show for the family. Any family. On hand will be cars and entertainment and special displays for every taste and every purpose.

The show opens Saturday (Nov. 26) in Cobo Hall, and runs through Sunday, Dec. 4. Hours will be noon to 11 p.m. daily. Admission will be $1.25 for adults, 50 cents for children 12 and under.

Teenage students will get a special break during the week on admission prices. All students, up to and including high school seniors, will be admitted for 50 cents each from noon to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Senior citizens, too, will get a special break on Senior Citizen's Day, Wednesday (Nov. 30) from noon to 5 p.m. During these hours they will be admitted free of charge upon proof of age 65 or over.

This year, for the first time, a special display of recreational and utility vehicles will be shown in Hall D on the lower level of Cobo Hall. The new display gives the show 400,000 square feet of floor space and makes it the largest auto show in the world.

Boyce Tape, the veteran auto show manager and executive vice-president of the sponsoring Detroit Auto Dealers Association, expects attendance to top 250,000 this year. Last year's show drew 211,608, top crowd figure in the last 10 years.

Stars of the show business world will be added to the stars of the automotive world at this year's show. The show business stars will take the
