Showoff' Room Boon To Family

Every Jome needs a "show-off" room, It's as essential as a man's acckue or the frosting on a cike.

This room may be a living to o m, skitchen, recreation room or bobby spot.

What will such a room do for you? John Concord, home planning consultant to Maschite Corporation, has some ideas on his:

"First, it's moderful for freight man the second in the second was sufficient. It will contibute to their good living and the pride of the family.

"Second, guests and callers will appreciate something different that you have to differ. They might even envy you a bit Such a room is an accellent conversation piece. It can be comfortable and alteractive.

"Third, if ever you should sell, your house has a built-in selling point. The real estate salesman might say: What a den of a kitchen!' Or: "linithia a delightful hobby room the say: "What a delightful hobby room the say: "It's early nowadays for a firmily to create its "show-off" room. It simply takes some ideas, attractive walls and suitable furnishings or built-ins, Concord aya. Woodgained hardboard paneling fiten is selected by a family for a special room because of its durability, asy-to-clamant finish and attractiveness.

"Panels like Masonite Royalcote." Concord observes, can be installed right over existing walls with a cartidge-type adhesive that eliminates nailing. Matching involved wood moldings at floor, corners, and ceiling ive a firished appearance to the room."

Kitchen Knives Need Protection

To keep knives from be-coming dull, store them in slotted wall or drawer racks, or use a magnetic holder. K.p.ives striking against each other, or against any other object in a drawer, soon loose their sharp edge.
