FARMINGTON Socially Speaking

By Kathy Ziska GR 4-7261-L

If you're ever at a loss of what to do at a ladies gathering where the object is to have fun and get to know each other as the Franklin Knolls Women's Club did, the President, Mrs. Richard Kloss, at a previous meeting, asked each member to tell either her age or her weight to the lady sitting to her right. It broke the ice and it turned out to be a very relaxed, fun meeting.

At the December meeting at St. Coleman's Church, the Franklin Knolls Women's Club enjoyed a Christmas Decorating Demonstration. The program was fun for me, their guest speakers. There's a confession I made at the meeting that I couldn't resist after trimming neighbors' evergreens (and that isn't easy) a hungry rabbit decided to lunch on the greens I had borrowed instead of trimming some of his own. Guess that's all part of a country living.

Big doings at the home of Richard and Donna Pesci of Green Meadow Circle, where a family dinner was enjoyed by a crowd of many. Those included: Richard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pesci and daughter, Denise; Aunt Mary and Uncle Paul Barkus and their daughter, Denise; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Szymala and their daughter, Gail; Mrs. Stella Farmer, and Richard's Grandmother Wydzyszewicz.

Philippine Trip Planned by Youth

Excitement is running high at the Round house, 26117 Barbados Rd. in Farmington.

Eleven-year-old Scott leaves for the Philippines Dec. 10 to participate in the Children's International Summer Village. He is one of four delegates from the metropolitan area.

Scott first became interested in CIVS last spring when he saw a movie at the Detroit Country Day School entitled "Too Young To Hate." He took home an application for membership and a delegate's application, filled them out and mailed them — His parents knew nothing of this.

Early in the fall, he was contacted for an interview, and several days later received notification that he was to be one of the four area delegates.
