Lava Lites By 100's In Local Display
Do you know what a Lava Lite is?
Some people say they have the same effect as LSD—and then again others say they are more tranquil than tranquilizers and more relaxing than eight hours of sleep.
But whatever you can judge for yourself, by viewing the largest display in Michigan on Beech Road in Redford Township.
The BFR Company at 15498 Beech Road will be happy to have you stop by and look over their stock which include the planter model, the children's clown, several religious models, one ideal for your TV. Romantic and exciting Lavas that come in most any combination of color to fit the decor of your home.
The price ranges from $14 to $150—even the display is worth the trip.
BFR represents three local business men, Richard Bruny, Pat Foley and Tom Rand.

Voices Can Still Reach Servicemen
Red Cross Chapter wishes to remind you that you still have until Saturday, Dec. 17 to record for your loved one in military service overseas.
Twelve and a half minute "Voices From Home" recordings are cut and sent by Red Cross at no cost to participants.
All a family must do is make an appointment calling the nearest Red Cross office.

Buy A Goodfellow Paper Sat.

Once again you have the opportunity, Mr. and Mrs. Livonia, to open up your hearts and pocket-books and buy a newspaper from your favorite Old Newsboy, to be sure there is no family in Livonia without a Christmas. The annual sale will be Saturday, Dec. 10, and Goodfellows will be on every main intersection in the City.
President of the Goodfellows, Harry S. Wolfe said the goal this year would be $75,000 and he felt confident they would reach this goal through the sale of the newspapers Dec. 10. "We only do this once a year and have no other fund raising activities and we have always found the people in Livonia generous and willing to do their share to see that the less fortunate are provided a Happy Christmas."
Don Wolfe, chairman of the newspaper sale, said many police and firemen would go out Friday with their papers. Also through the cooperation of the Livonia Schools there would be newspapers sold throughout the Livonia school system to teachers, principals, and employees of the district.

President Wolfe also asks any citizens knowing of a family in the community who need assistance this Christmas, please call Livonia City Clerk Addison Bacon, GA 1-2000. Food, shoes, clothes, toys, games are part of the Christmas the Goodfellows deliver. Policemen do the delivering two days before Christmas and all orders are carefully checked as to the number in the family and proper sizes, etc.

Don't let the Goodfellows down—help them fulfill their promise of "no kiddie in Livonia without a Christmas."
