

Police Chase Car Hold 3 on Charges

A joy ride through the City of Farmington and Farmington Township Dec. 14 ended with the arrest of the driver and two passengers.

Sgt. Glen Harding of the City Police and Officer Thomas H. Daniels received a radio call that a car was travelling on Grand River at a high rate of speed.

The police spotted the car at Grand River and Powers and headed it west to Farmington Rd. then down Farmington to Freedom Rd. where the car went east again to Grand River. At Grand River and Middlebelt they lost the car and notified the Farmington Township, Livonia and Southfield police.

Sgt. Arlo Newell and Officer Lynn Sonnenberg of the Farmington Township force saw the car in the vicinity of Eight Mile and Inkster and finally stopped the car at Shawwassee and Neagunee.

David Poquette, 18, of 21901 Fraser, Southfield, the driver, was charged with fleeing from a traffic arrest by the City Police, and is wanted by the Township force on the same charge.

Edward Robinson, 18, of 17848 Woodbine, Redford Township, was turned over to the Detroit police on a warrant; and Larry Miles, 18, 25376 Shiawwassee, Southfield, was turned over to the Southfield police.

Other passengers in the car were: Bradley Stison, 17, of 14836 Centralia, Redford Township; Herbert Gluski, 18, of Detroit; and a juvenile girl who was turned over to the juvenile authorities.

Michael Redouty

14-Year-Old Boy Becomes Eagle Scout

Michael Redouty, age 14, is the first Boy Scout from St. Robert Bellarmine's Troop 499 to achieve the rank of Eagle Scout.

He received the Eagle Scout award Dec. 1, at the Court of Honor in St. Robert's Activities Building.

In the three years Mike has been in Troop 499, he has served in the capacity of assistant patrol leader, patrol leader, and now senior patrol leader.

Mike has 22 merit badges and specialized in the nature, insect and outdoor series.

He is a brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow.

Last summer Mike was named as Patrol Leader at the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

Mike resides at 9520 Arden, Livonia, with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Redouty and four brothers.

His brothers, Robert and Richard, are Explorer Scouts; David, a Cub Scout and Jeff, age 4, a prospective Cub Scout.

Mr. Redouty is the Scoutmaster of Troop 499. MICA is in the eighth grade at St. Robert Bellarmine School, an honor student and altar boy.

His hobbies are baseball, coin collecting and insect collecting.

Mercy Sets Varied Courses

Courses ranging from dance training for actors to make them better actors to credit courses in education to make better teachers are included in the program of late afternoon and evening classes at Mercy College of Detroit.

Registration will begin with credit courses in the registrar's office Thursday and Friday, Jan. 5 and 6. Hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Thursday and 8:30 until 9:00 p.m. Friday.

There will be three separate registrations for non-credit courses. The first will be in Marian Hall lobby Tuesday, Jan. 10, from 6 to 8 p.m. Registration for classes for children will be Saturday, Jan. 14, 8 to 10 a.m. in Marian Hall. Registration for special five weeks courses will be Thursday, Jan. 19, 8 to 9 a.m. in the lobby of the Administration Building.

Detailed information is available from Mercy College of Detroit, 8200 West Outer Drive, Detroit, 48219.

WSU Group To Perform In Livonia

Wayne State University's Children's Theatre will perform before a large group of children during its 26th annual tour of Southeastern Michigan which begins next month.

This year's production, "The Emperor's New Clothes," is a dramatization by Charlotte Chorprenning based on the fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen. The comedy is directed by Dr. T.O. Andrus, who heads the WSU Children's Theatre program.

The touring season will open Saturday, Jan. 14 and continue through Saturday, May 20. Cities included in the tour are Detroit, Highland Park, Royal Oak, M2, Clevland, Hazel Park, Livonia, Warren, Dearborn, Dearborn Heights, Oak Park and Wyandotte.

Spring performances are scheduled at the Bonstelle Theatre on two Saturdays, March 18 and 25.

Costumes for the one hour and 15 minute production were designed by Janice Snodgrass, theatre costumer, and the sets are by Russell Smith, technical director.

The student company, which is responsible for both the acting and backstage work, includes Charles Christian, Charles Hannum, Nayda Pavitis, Jacqueline Reeves, Gregory Olszewski, George Dusinski, Al Toren, John Slavinski, Mary Ann Hayes, Paula Land, Rachelle Young and Karen Trainer.

Youth Committee Nominates Five

Five names have been proposed for membership on the Farmington Youth Guidance Committee. All residents of Farmington Township, they are: Elaine Palmer, L. Allen Hurd, Aldo Vagnozzi, Marilyn Betts and Hilda Eckel.

The Farmington City Council received and filed the nominations at its Dec. 19 meeting, but delayed action until additional background information on each person was submitted.

Recently the Farmington Board of Education and the Farmington Township Board had not received the names as the matter was not mentioned at either session of these groups Dec. 19.

Southfield Boy Injured

A 23-year-old Southfield boy was taken to Botsford General Hospital Dec. 20 following an automobile accident at Middlebelt and Shawwassee in Farmington Township.

Injured was Donald Kivell, of 21091 Delaware, a passenger in a car driven by Daniel A. Peterson, 20, of 24845 Creekside, Farmington.

Peterson's car struck a vehicle driven by Pontia J. Wales, 51, of 28225 Cadence, Farmington, when he slid into the lane of oncoming traffic. Peterson told police that he stopped to avoid a car making a quick left turn and slid into the other lane.

Serviceman Pays Fine

Santa Claus in the form of Municipal Judge James M. Cann last week gave a present to a 19-year-old serviceman charged with reckless driving.

His fine for the offense came to $25 contrasted to much stiffer penalties usually set for reckless drivers.

David L. Kutschke, 19, of 28146 David Road, Farmington, was arrested Aug. 6—only 12 days before he entered the Army—on a citation for reckless driving.

He appeared in court Dec. 21, dressed in uniform, while home on a two-week furlough, and the judge apparently decided the defendant merited the milder type of penalty imposed.

Girl Scouts Have Reunion

Eight Farmington girls are renewing memories of summer camp days in a reunion of campers and staff members at Southern Oakland Girl Scout Camp Narrin.

The reunion, held today (Wednesday) in Royal Oak takes as its theme one of the Girl Scouts favorite camp songs "Make New Friends But Keep the Old."

Girls in the Farmington area who were invited to the get-together include: Kris Wheeler, Tess Schaefer, Carol Feiten, Ann Forth, Jan Woolco, Claudia Beane, Robin Roe and Carolyn Bohne.

Winners Announced
The Kimberley Home Owners Association in Farmington Township has announced the winners of its Christmas Decorations Contest. First prize went to Mr. and Mrs. William Flattery of 26634 Westmeath; second place to Mr. and Mrs. Neil Trombley of 26607 Graythorn; and Mr. and Mrs. Steven Martello of 28994 Pipers Lane won third place.

YMCA Sets Swimming

Members of the Farmington YMCA will be offered a special family instructional and recreational swimming at Livonia's new Stevenson High School beginning Jan. 20.

In addition to the family program, YMCA swimming programs will open shortly after the first of the year.

A youth swimming class for children of all levels of swimming skills between the ages of 6 and 14 will be Jan. 2 at the Wylie Groves High School at 13 Mile and Evergreen. The program will last eight weeks.

Advanced swimmers in this age group will have the opportunity to participate in an eight week program at Barnum Junior High School, Birmingham, beginning Jan. 9.

Cost of these programs is $6 plus a current YMCA membership.

The family program begins Jan. 20 for an eight-week period. Two separate periods are included in the Friday night program, one of instruction and one of recreational swimming.

At least one parent must be involved in the instructional and recreational swim hours and enrolling must be done by Jan. 15.

For further information on these programs and to register, contact the Farmington Y at 474-3232.
