

Art Workshops Set At 3 Local Centers

Registrations are now being accepted for spring sessions of Art Workshops for Young People, sponsored by the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts and conducted at the museum and in six suburban areas.

Included in the suburban areas are Farmington, Garden City and Livonia.

All classes meet on Saturdays and because the classes fill rapidly, early enrollment is essential. The workshops will last five weeks.

Instructors for the Art Workshops are artists familiar with the techniques and problems of both teaching and learning the mastery of various art media. Materials used include paint, charcoal, clay, paper and new experimental materials.

Classes for the lower grades (1-4) will be one and a half hours long while sessions for older students will last two hours.

Locations for the workshop in the area are the Garden City Library at 2012 Middlebelt; Larkshire School at 23800 Tuck Rd., Farmington; and Whitman Junior High School, 32208 W. Chicago, Livonia.

C of C To Hear State Economic Officer, Feb. 16

The Westland Chamber of Commerce is scheduled to hear Richard Warfel of the Michigan Department of Economic Expansion at its next meeting—again.

Warfel, to speak at the noon luncheon meeting on Thursday, Feb. 16, was the scheduled speaker at the group's November meeting.

But an auto accident shortly before that meeting forced the use of another official from the state office.

Bookings for local performances of "The Emperor's New Clothes" by the Wayne State University touring Children's Theatre are still being accepted. Production Manager Dr. T. O. Andrus has announced.

The Children's Theatre annually tours southeastern Michigan playing to nearly 50,000 children, one of the largest children's theatre audiences in the country.

Road performances began this month and will continue through May. Several weekends are still open for organizations or school groups that wish to schedule the play. Dr. Andrus said. Information may be obtained by calling the University Theatre, 833-1400, extension 408.

Written by Charlotte Chappene. "The Emperor's New Clothes" is a dramatization of the famous fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen.

Astronauts Put Scouting at Top

Young people start out the same, but the activities of their youth determine what they will be like when they are adults.

Astronaut James A. McDivitt expressed this opinion as he praised the Boy Scouts of America for its program for youth.

"All young people start out the same. They all have a lot of energy, a great amount of intelligence, and they want to do something with this," McDivitt said.

"I think that the thing that separates the good people from the bad people when they get to be adults is how they channel themselves in their early life," the pilot of Gemini-Titan 4, explained.

McDivitt, who was a Boy Scout in Berlin, Wis., is among the 27 astronauts who have been active in Scouting as boys or men and who have all spoken out in favor of Scouting.

JUAN SERRANO, Flamenco guitarist, will give a special recital Monday, Feb. 13, at 8:30 p.m. in Wilson Hall at Oakland University. Tickets for the performance are available through the Meadow Brook Festival office at Oakland University.

Caged Birds Need Gravel—All caged birds must have gravel, as it takes the place of teeth for them.

Ordinary sand should not be used as it is dusty, of no digestive value and may have harmful impurities.

Buy sand especially for them and sprinkle a little on the floor of their cage daily.

Winter Driving Tips—LANSING—The Michigan State Highway Commission cautions motorists a "a lot of 'people' driving on frosty mornings. For safer driving, keep a squeegee or rag in the car and wipe off back and side windows as well as the entire windshield.
