Musical Scholarships Are Available for Students

The Duquesne University Tamburitzans will audition candidates for the group's full-tuition scholarships after their concert appearance at West High School, Garden City, Feb. 19.

Walter W. Kolar, managing-director of the group, and his staff will audition and interview qualified candidates for the scholarships to Duquesne University, Pittsburgh.

The scholarships are awarded to high school students possessing the necessary qualifications of musical proficiency as instrumentalists, singers or dancers. Candidates must also meet all admission requirements of Duquesne University.

The scholarship is worth more than $7,000 and includes full-tuition, and room and board in any school of the University. All travel expenses are also included.

Candidates unable to attend the concert for an audition should direct their applications to the Tamburitzans, Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219.

Quartet Concert Set for Sunday

The University Center for Adult Education will present the first in a series of three concerts by the Stanley Quartet at 4:15 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 19, in the Engineering Society of Detroit Auditorium, Rackham Educational Memorial.

Selections for the first program are Beethoven's "Quartet in D Major," Bartok-Serley, "Five Pieces from Mikrokosmos" and Brahms' "Quartet in C Minor."

Barber Shop Quartets Set Dearborn Concert

The purest kind of harmony, unrestricted by time, tempo or instrumentation, adequately describes the musical style which has captivated thousands of Americans and marked "barbershop" as a distinctive and infectious new art form.

The mellow, controlled sounds of barbershop singing, blending to a fine degree of perfection through constant practice, have never failed to bring forth the unrestrained admiration and appreciation of interested audiences.

Three of the finest such barbershop quartets will be making a one-night only appearance in Dearborn at Edsel Ford High School Auditorium, Rohnert at Peiham, Friday, Showtime is 8:15 p.m.

Headed by the 1966 International SPEBSQSA champion Auto Towners Quartet, the program theme will stress the "good old days of high button shoes" when the original barbershop singers began harmonizing in the tonsorial parlors of the "Gay Nineties."

In addition to the Auto Towners, two championship Sweet Adeline quartets will perform, including the Chi-

Larks, former medalists in International Sweet Adeline competition, and the Crackerjacks, International Sweet Adeline champions of 1957-58.

The concert is being presented by the Dearborn Recreation Department in conjunction with the Downriver-Deardorn Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc.

Tickets can be obtained at the Dearborn Youth Center, Michigan at Greenfield, Cuda's East and West Dearborn Bookstore or by calling Judy Snyder at 484-1273 in Livonia.

The 40-member Downriver Dearborn Sweet Adeline Chorus, Inc., co-sponsor of the concert, celebrated its first anniversary in January. Bobbie Bostick is the director of the group and last April, in Dearborn Youth Center, Michigan at Greenfield.

Livonia and Garden City members of the chorus instrumental in making many of the arrangements for the Feb. 17 concert are Judy Snyder, Publicity; Donna Schultz, Costume; Mary Anne Coburn, Publicity; Bobbie Bostick, Director of Chorus.
