New Title Christ the King Lutheran Is Given

Preaching and performing the rite of installation at the 11 am. worship service will be Dr. Frank P. Madsen, Michigan Synod President, Lutheran Church in America.

The "Christian Rural Overseas Program" — known more popularly as CROP—will now be known as "Church World Service Community Appeals."

The change of name was announced by Albe-! W. Farmer, director of the program, at a recent meeting in Kansas City, Mo., commemorating the 20th anniversary of CROP.

Farmer emphasizes that Lutheran Church in America.
A reception for Pastor Mueller and his family will be held in the church parlors from 3 to 5 p.m.
Pastor Mueller comes to Livonia from St. James Lutran Church, Jackson, Mich.
where he served as a mission developer and the congregation's first pastor.

Farmer emphasizes that the name "CROP" is not being dropped. "The letters in CROP" he says. "do not now stand for anything except FOOD—food for the hungry and assistance to them to provide more food for themselves."

In explaining the change, which was approved last fall by its national committee but not announced until recently.

by its national committee but not announced until recently. Parmer said the percentage of total US, population living on farms has decreased from 197 to 77c, since CROP was founded in 1947.

"Increasingly." he says "CROP was not solely rural. "Under the impact of urban culture, even town and county residents often consider themselves non-rural." he delared. "Since CROP has been authorized to appeal to urban as well as rural areas and ask for cash as well as commodities. Christian RU RAL Overseas Program became a handicap."

Church World Service Community Appeals will be responsible for both the CROP Community food Appeal and the CWS Clothing Appeal. It maintains 13 regional offices, whose staff is now meeting in Kansas City in annual conference.
