A young man who enjoys Scouting, school and the National Geographic, received me of the highest Scouting honors Sunday.

Dr. Henry Walch, of the First United Preshyterian Church in Plymouth, presented the God and Country award to Bill Kesling, 13, o Pinetree, Livonia, He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kesling, Sr. Young Bill has come up through the secouting for five years and started as a Cub, then a Weble and is now a life Boy Scout member.

It took him a year and two months to earn his God and Country award. One of the most important aspects of the program was working with boys at Plymouth State Home.

mouth State Home.

Bill is a member of Scout troop No. 758 sponsored by Newburg Methodist Church. His Scoutmaster's name is William DeMud and his Dad is Assistant Scoutmaster. Aside from his newly earned badge, of which he is very proud, he also has 14 other merit badges. Bill is a student of Lowell Junior High and is an eighth grader.

For his life's work Bill is considering becoming a naturalist for National Geographic because he enjoys the magazines and thinks this would be interesting work.

Cyclist To Stand Trial

A motorcyclist followed by a policeman for minor traffic violations was bound over for circuit Court trial recently for carrying a 38-caiber automatic revolver.

Charged with carrying a concealed weapon was Roger Amburgy, 22, of 23903 Birchiawn Street, Garden City, Binding him over for trial was Garden City Munthally Judge Richard L. Hammer.

Amburgy was observed by Patrolman Glenn Cortez Jat month changing lanes without signaling on Middlebeit Road and then turning right without signaling.

When Amburgy was stopped, Cortez found the reduced was supposed for the control of the control

When Amburgy was stopped, Cortez found the revolver, loaded with nine rounds of ammunition, in the driver's leather jacket pock-
