

Lindner Named Vice President At Schoolcraft

W. Kenneth Lindner, business manager of Schoolcraft College since organizational days, has been named vice-president in charge of business affairs.

Lindner's appointment to the new position was one of two personnel promotions recommended by President Eric J. Bradner and approved by the Board of Trustees.

The second promotion was that of Mrs. Clara (William A.) Rousseau, secretary to Dr. Bradner.

3 From Area Participate In Program

Counselors, teachers and administrators from the Plymouth and Livonia school systems will have key roles in the second annual Wayne County Vocational Guidance Conference at Lawrence Institute of Technology, 2100 W. 10-Mile Road in Southfield on Thursday.

More than 300 educators from Wayne County schools are expected to attend the conference which has a theme of "Vocational Guidance: Facts of Life."

Plymouth and Livonia representatives include: Assistant Principal John Hoben and Vocational Coordinator Philip Johnson of Plymouth and Ida Falik of Livonia Public Schools.

Keynoting the conference will be Dr. William Ramsey from the Peninsula-Vocational School in Perryburg, Ohio. His talk will deal with the formation of Ohio's first area vocational schools.

The theme of his address will be "A New Vocational School Dedicated to Meeting Needs of Youth."

Hoben and Johnson will have charge of a group meeting on the subject of High School and Community Placement services.

Miss Falik, a coordinator in the Livonia system, will be joined by Mildred Apolson, of Montgomery Ward, in a session devoted to Evaluation of Cooperative Training by Business.

State Police Nab 17,108 In January

Michigan State Police officers made 17,108 arrests in January, 15,553 for traffic offenses and 1,555 on criminal complaints, according to the department's monthly activity report.
