

Hootenanny Fill Gym

BY LYNN BARNETT
Thurston High Reporter

The supper and hootenanny were two popular events at Thurston last week, when the junior class presented an evening of fun, March 22.

Featured was Bobby An-draws and the, "New Christian Minstrels," a folk singing group composed of the members of Thurston's Christian Club.

The gymnasium was filled to capacity with eager spectators of all ages. The lively event was concluded with junior class song Eileen Liveroni receiving a bouquet of red roses.

Profits from the supper and hootenanny will be used for the junior-senior prom that will take place on June 3 at Lovett Hall.

TOP DOWN weather prevailed over the weekend in the area as the temperatures in the 70's and many teens spent Sunday afternoon touring main streets. It was the first convertible weather Plymouthites had seen since the Fall Festival.

Senator Kuhn Proposes Four Bills To Cut Crime Wave

LANSING — Voicing great concern at the rapidly rising crime rate in Michigan, Sen. George W. Kuhn (R-West Bloomfield) today introduced a package of four bills designed to strengthen the hand of law enforcement officers in their battle on crime.

"Society must be given the same if not better protection as the criminal is currently receiving in terms of law enforcement and justice," Sen. Kuhn said.

"It is the duty of every official at every level of government to provide means necessary to protect the public from marauding criminals."

"In Detroit alone, with 232 murders, or a 60 per cent increase, during the past year, we have an emergency situation that demands immediate action before it gets completely out of hand."

Sen. Kuhn noted that the rise of crime in the Detroit area in recent months is so serious that law abiding citizens are arming themselves with guns and knives for their own protection.

"We certainly cannot blame anyone for taking steps to protect himself against robbers, thugs, rapists and muggers, but this could become an intolerable and dangerous situation," he asserted.

"We must give law enforcement officers better tools with which to combat crime and see that they carry out their responsibilities. Civilians should not have to defend themselves with arms."

Farmington Scout Chairman Named

At this time of the year we usually announce the election of new Neighborhood Chairmen in the Farmington-Nowi District. However, because of the new structure change that will be going into effect in March, 1968, the District Chairman, Mrs. Leona Studebaker, has asked that the preceding Chairmen remain in office until that time. They have all consented to do this and so were duly voted back into office this month.

So the Neighborhood Chairmen remain the same: Mrs. Edna Miller, Novi Neighborhood, Mrs. Eileen Schaeffer, Farmington City, Mrs. B. B. Scaglione, North Farmington and Mrs. Judy Zahler, Southeast Farmington.

Troop 430, Beechview School Juniors, Mrs. Jean Iles and Mrs. Alice Francis co-leaders, made arrangements for the trip to Lansing on March 28. They visited the Capitol Building and Governor Romney.

Junior Troop 421, William Grace School, Mrs. Cathy Reske and Mrs. Elaine Salatin co-leaders, celebrated Girl Scout Sunday by attending services at St. Alexander Church in Farmington. At the recent Girl Scout birthday celebration these girls dramatized the Scout law "A Girl Scout duty is to be useful and help others," and did it in a very entertaining way.

Around the Holidays the girls of Cadette 821 took charge of a drive to collect clothing for the Indians at Walpole Island. Many of the troops in the Southeast Farmington Neighborhood were involved in this with them.

Just recently the girls received belated thanks from the Rev. Keith Stokes of St. John the Baptist Episcopal Church on Walpole Island. In thanking them he mentioned that these people were very grateful for the clothing for the adults as well as for the children.

May 1 again remind the leaders that their help is urgently needed to staff our day camp at Arapaho and Chippawa. We really would like to expand our day camp to two sessions but we will be unable to do so. Give the matter some thought and then contact your Neighborhood chairman. Your help will really be appreciated by all our Girl Scouts.

The date for the Annual Council Meeting of the Southern Oakland Girl Scouts is Thursday, May 25, and it will be held at the new Holiday Inn on Telegraph Road. All Girl Scout leaders are invited to attend and registration forms will be in the Chat.

Plans for their Washington Trip are really snowballing for the girls of Cadette 1003, which meets at Farmington Junior High, Mrs. Martha Clifford and Mrs. Pat Osborne co-leaders. They will be going by chartered bus and will be gone for five days beginning June 26. They will be chaperoned by five adults; their own leaders and two other Girl Scout leaders known to many of us, Mrs. Jean Iles and Mrs. May Skellenger, and the mother of one of the Girl Scouts.

While in Washington they will visit the White House, the Treasury Department, Departments of State and Agriculture, the Smithsonian Institute, Arlington National Cemetery, Alexandria and Mount Vernon to name but a few. Let's hope their Girl will be doing.
