

First Aid Training Available

Disabling accidents, severe enough to cause loss of time from usual duties for at least one day after injury, occur annually in from one-fifth to one-fourth of our families annually. These accidents represent great expense to victims. Red Cross first aid courses teach not only how to care for victims until a physician arrives, but also, makes all aware of how to prevent accidents through taking necessary precautions. First Aid courses teach how to handle severe bleeding, administer mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and immediate treatment of accidental poisoning. A free standard first aid class will be taught at the Northwest Service Office, ARC, 31228 Five Mile Road in Livonia beginning Wednesday, April 19, between the hours of 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. For more information regarding this class, call Red Cross, 422-2787.
