READERS SPEAK:
Library Friends Express Thanks

EDITOR:

On behalf of the Farmington Friends of the Library I want to congratulate you on the excellent coverage given the library expansion program in the weeks prior to the election. Your accurate and timely presentation of the facts of the library situation aided immeasurably in our campaign to achieve public approval at the polls.

I suppose it is always satisfying to have participated in a successful venture, but my own gratification was enhanced by the fact that we so readily found willing and enthusiastic workers to conduct a vigorous person-to-person campaign. Over 100 volunteers were recruited by the Friends of the Library. However, so many of these workers enlisted additional recruits that at this time it is impossible to compile a complete list.

It is unfortunate that we are unable to express our thanks individually to all these people for they are the ones who really achieved public approval for library expansion. Therefore, I am taking this opportunity to acknowledge this outstanding accomplishment by a large group of Township citizens with whom we, the Friends of the Library, are proud to have been associated.

GEORGE M. DUGAN
President, Farmington Friends of the Library.

FARMINGTON JAYCEES have presented $150 checks toward tuition to a music camp of their choice to Margery Otto, of East Junior High School and Debbie Robertson, of Dunckel Junior High. Arthur Dimmar, of the Jaycees, presented the checks to the girls, who were among five finalists. Debbie plays the flute and Margery the piano and flute.

Trustees Thank All For Support

EDITOR:

The Board of Trustees of our District Library wishes to express its appreciation to the township electorate for its approval of the millage to permit library expansion. Townshipwide interest was expressed in the ballot for which we are grateful. We appreciate this expression of confidence, and wish to assure our citizenry that every effort will be exerted to make this institution one of honor and distinction in the community, the cultural benefits of which will be enjoyed by everyone.

We want especially to thank the many organizations for the privilege of presenting this program to them which includes the Farmington Area Council of PTA and its many members, the American Association of University Women, Farmington Branch, the Farmington Democratic Club, and the Republican Women's Organization of Farmington - all having publicly endorsed the program. The many subdivision associations in the township and the Usters Club and Women's Council of the Church of St. Paul.

We are particularly grateful and wish to publicly acknowledge the fine cooperation and well planned program for publicity by the Farmington Friends of the Library under the guidance of its president, George Dugan, with the enthusiastic assistance of Gerald Ellsworth and Charles Hebler. This organization worked devotedly and tirelessly, and contributed greatly to the success of the program.

MARY F. ALLISON
Secretary, Board of Trustees.
