

Clinic Graduates 22 Babysitters

The Farmington Jaycee Auxiliary completed its last class of the Babysitting Clinic May 31. The classes, held at East Junior High School, graduated 22 girls. Each girl was given a "Parent By The Hour" card, one in the fall and another showing she had completed the course. Letters were also sent home to parents explaining what the course was all about.

The Farmington Jaycee Auxiliary will hold two more Babysitting Clinics next year, one in the fall and another in the spring.

REPRESENTATIVES of Farmington's Association of Letter Carriers met with Congressman Jack McDonald in Washington recently. With McDonald (seated) from left, are: William Rene, association president; Pasquale Papa; Lester Rackey; and Leonard Weems, association secretary. The four attended the national meeting of the National Association of Letter Carriers. Theme of the meeting was "Better Postal Pay — Better Postal Service."

22 Jaycees Attend Convention

Twenty-two Farmington Jaycees and their wives recently returned from a week-end at Traverse City, where they attended the Michigan Jaycee State Convention.

The convention is held each year to elect a new state president and to recognize and make awards to outstanding chapters in the state.

The convention began with a Friday night get-together party. At noon on Saturday, the Farmington Chapter attended the awards luncheon.
