New Building to House New Pastor Joins Church School, Nursery In Westland

A modern new structure, designed to house a church school, a state-licensed day-care nursery center during the week, and a center for ten activities is being built by the Livonia Assembly of God Church at 33015 W. Seven Mile.

Ground was broken for the new building on Mother's Day, May 14. It is expected to be completed in September.

Currently both the Livonia Assembly of God church school and the Loveland Children's Nursery are housed in an old building next door to the church sanctuary. The sanctuary was built 18 months ago.

When the new structure is completed, on the other side of the sanctuary building, the old one will be torn down.

The Loveland Nursery, sponsored by the church but not oriented to any religious teaching, operates all year. During the summer, it is licensed to accept children through six years of age for full-day group care, and applications are now being accepted for this program.

Fall applications also are being accepted, and it is expected that the session opening in September will be housed in the new facilities. During the school year, Loveland Nursery accepts children two and a half to five years of age, on a full or

THE VERY REVEREND RUPERT DORN, O.F.M., Capuchin, has been elected to a three-year term as Provincial Superior of the Midwest Capuchin Province of St. Joseph. The Provincial jurisdiction covers Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Montana and the northern half of Indiana and Illinois.

State Lutheran College Grants First Degrees

Michigan Lutheran College issued its first Bachelor Degrees at graduation exercises Sunday, June 18, at 8 p.m. in the Detroit Institute of Arts lecture hall. The principal speaker was Congressman John Conyers.

Thirty-two degrees were issued in the arts, business, and the medical field.

The College also issued an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws to John W. Korff, Chairman of the Board of Regents of the College and recently retired Detroit Bank and Trust Company officer.

Presbyterians Vote Action to Combat Crime

More than 400 delegates attending the 133rd Annual Meeting of the Synod of Michigan Presbyterians in Grand Rapids, made a decision to support a resolution to combat crime.

Convening at Alma College last week the clergy and laymen voted that a study be made of all aspects of the question of therapeutic abortion and that the Michigan Legislature hold public hearings on a proposed abortion bill.

It was decided that Michigan Presbyterians follow the recommendation of the General Assembly and observe Sunday, June 25, as a Day of Prayer for Peace in Vietnam when the Declaration of Conscience of the Assembly be read in the churches, that Christians fast and give an offering for the victims of the war.

A record budget for 1968 was set at $799,900, which is a record high. A total of $414,400 is for administration costs and $385,000 for synod causes. The per capita was increased from $3.35 to $4.44.

Planning for the future in this Synod must be designed so that laymen both can and want to be involved. Dr. Robert H. Yonson, executive, declared as he stressed the need for more participation by the laity. "Our mission must never be left solely to ministers or professional staff," he stated.

Rev. Ralph C. Stribe, Jr., pastor of the Church of Our Saviour, Birmingham, was elected moderator succeeding Rev. J. Robert Ranck, Menominee. Rev. Eugene G. Slep, pastor of Immanuel Church, Farmington, was elected secretary.

Dr. R. Hoyt Kerr, who has been pastor of First Church, Neward, O. 13 years, was installed as associate executive in a ceremony conducted by Dr. Winburn T. Thomas, secretary of Interpretation and Stewardship of the Church.

Success of the Fifty Million Fund Campaign was reported by Charles H. Patterson, general chairman. Delegates were advised that at the present there is a total of $4,372,957 in confirmed pledges which puts the Synod over its goal of $4,000,000.

49th Christian Endeavor Bible School Scheduled June 26-30 Convention Set in Detroit

Final preparations are being made for the 49th International Christian Endeavor Convention to be held in Detroit July 3 to 7.

Some 2,500 young people from all over North America are expected to attend sessions in Cobo Hall.

The Rev. F. Rupert Gibson, Belfast, Northern Ireland, superintendent of the Irish Mission of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland and a vice-president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union, will give the keynote address at the opening session Monday evening, July 3.

The speaker Tuesday evening will be Bishop Clyde W. Meadows, D.D., president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union. An emphasis on the Lordship of Christ in a complex society will be made on Wednesday night, July 5, when Dr. Daniel A. Poling, honorary president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union will address the delegates.

The Albert H. Diebold Awards in Christian Endeavor's 1967 Christian Action Awards Program will be presented to winning youths and representatives of the winning societies and local unions at this session.

The Thursday night session will take place on the Detroit River aboard the Bob-Lou Steamer, Arch J. McQuillan, Jr., president of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, will address delegates at this unique session.

Jerome Hines, bass-baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will challenge delegates at the closing Friday night session by presenting a message in song and personal testimony. A special feature of this session will be the presentation of International Youth's Distinguished Service Citation to Mr. Hines, who is the twelfth recipient of this honor.

Previous citation recipients include Admiral Richard E. Byrd, Herbert C. Hoover, Harold E. Stassen, Dr. Daniel A. Poling, Mrs. Helen Lyons Jones, Theodore R. McKelvin, Walter H. Judd, Richard M. Nixon, Dr. Billy Graham, Dr. George K. Schweitzer, and Roy Rogers and Dale Evans.

Each day the convention begins with a Quiet Hour presided by Dr. Abraham K. Akaka of Honolulu, Hawaii, pastor of the famed Kawaiaho Church.

A "school" will be held each morning with 43 conferences on evangelism, devotional life, methods of youth work, etc. Other convention features include a hymn sing at Civic Center Park, denominational, state, and provincial meetings, a special Junior Convention on Friday under the leadership of Mrs. Warren G. Lund of Riverdale, Illinois, and a Recognition Banquet honoring Mr. and Mrs. Arch J. McQuillan. Afternoons will be used for 40 days.

For sight-seeing, recreation and personal counseling.

Program Committee chairman Dr. Daniel K. Poling, pastor of the Fort Washington Collegiate Church, New York City, Harold N. Bogart of Detroit, is general chairman of the Detroit Convention Committee which is making local convention plans. Mr. Bogart is director of manufacturing development for the Ford Motor Company and was recently presented the 1967 Award of Scientific Merit by the American Foundrymen's Society.

Nicholas Van Wingerden, also of Detroit, serves as associate chairman of the local committee.

Bus loads of youth are traveling to Detroit from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, and New York. All methods of transportation will be used by delegates.

Information concerning the registration and hotel and meal arrangements may be secured from the Detroit Convention Committee, 16524 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48203.

The new church home of Church of The Savior, a congregation of the Reformed Church in America at 38100 Five Mile Road, will be the site of a vacation Bible school from Monday, June 26 until Friday, June 30.

The morning sessions will begin at 9 a.m. and will close at 11:45 a.m.

An excellent program of Biblical instruction will be offered which will include Bible lessons applied to the child's everyday life, group singing and worship, handicrafts, and recreation. The study theme for the week is, "The God I Love."

All children in the community who are now four years old through those who will be entering seventh grade are most welcome to attend.

The church would appreciate knowing in advance if you plan to enroll your children. This may be done at the church office, or you may register by phone by calling Mrs. Roger Cook at 422-7826 or Mrs. Lawrence Martini at GA 2-0473.

The pastor of Church of The Savior is the Rev. Lucian Kistner. He may be reached by calling 464-1062 or 422-0122.
