CAREER REALTOR

My name's Jim Gardner and I made real estate my life's work 17 years ago. Now, I'm president and general manager of the B. F. Chamberlain Real Estate Company, logking for career salesmen in one of our offices. Read on perhaps it's you. Sure we work hard but with our goals, it's fun:

Service to the community: we teach that this starts by giving of your-self, your time and your ability.

Full, exciting day at the office because we believe you must live today and enjoy life while you work. Self-expression. TLC (tender loving care) is an office expression all of us respect. As we administer and work with our buyers and sellers, problems seem to melt away.

The daily challenge of providing the ultimate in service to the folks we serve. You know we "guarantee satisfaction" in all our trans-

There, you have some idea of what to expect. The B. F. Chamberlain Company is a dedicated sales organization. We are geared to sell used homes in a professional manner and "to attact to our sales department the man or waman who is consumed with a desire to serve his fellow man: The person who is guided in all things by the Golden Rule. So strongly does he understand his responsibility he may work untiringly for weeks, sustained, not by maney, but by the knowledge of a service well done. He loves his work. He loves his fellow man more."
