with them about what the expansion meant.

In order to understand this however, one must understand what is the purpose of educational TV.

Reda defines it as two-fold, "its primary function is to provide quality programs which will give the public and the children an exposure to art and culture." We notes.

ANTHONY REDA of 28248 Brookhill, Farm ington Township, makes a point about how the show should be done. Reda, who is a member of the program committee for WTVS, Channel 56 foresees an almost unlimited future for education television. He feels that the move of WTVS nannel 56, into a new broadcast center in South field will help the station meet the challenge.
