AT GREENFIELD VILLAGE:
Open Festival July 7
The curtain goes up on "The Henrietta," "Shenandoah" is the final play in the American Drama Festival, Friday, July 7, at 8:30 p.m.
Four historically significant American plays will be presented during the summer season in the Henry Ford Museum theater. They are performed by the Greenfield Village Players in the same repertory fashion as they were 100 years ago, and the season opens with Augustin Daly's "Under the Gaslight."
On July 17, Tom Taylor's famous comedy, "Our American Cousin," opens, followed on July 31 by the first of two Bronson Howard classics.

Montana Senator To Keynote July 4

United States Senator Lee Metcalf of Montana will deliver the keynote address at Greenfield Village's annual "Let Freedom Ring" program at 12 noon on Tuesday, July 4. This special event is held each year in conjunction with the YMCA's Dearborn-area Hi-Y Clubs.
The ceremony will be held on the front steps of the Henry Ford Museum, the entrance being an exact reproduction of Independence Hall in Philadelphia. Included on the program will be the 1968 VFW State Champion, Royal Lancer Junior Bugle Corps of Wyandotte.
Senator Metcalf has been active in the areas of education and conservation and helped to write the National Defense Education Act. He has been honored by several national conservation organizations for distinguished service.
Metcalf served first as a State Representative, assistant attorney general for Montana, and was associate justice of the Montana Supreme Court. After serving four terms in the U.S. House of Representatives, he was elected to the Senate in 1960.
The special July 4th Commemorative Program is open to the public. There is no charge, and ample free parking is provided at the Museum.

Science Classes Planned For Rockhounds
For youngsters in grades 3 through 8 who are interested in learning about rocks and minerals, Cranbrook Institute of Science is offering a four-week course called "Pebbles, Cobbles and Boulders."
Classes will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. beginning July 10. The instructor is Velva Pinney and the fee is $10.
The course will introduce young rockhounds to collecting and identifying common Michigan geologic materials. Field trips and outings on the grounds of Cranbrook will be a major part of the sessions.
For registration and further information call 644-1600, Ext. 225 or register on weekdays at the science museum, located in Bloomfield Hills.

Organist To Play Carillon Concert
Frederick Marriott, organist-director of Detroit's Central Methodist Church, will present a carillon concert at 4 p.m., July 2 from Christ Church Cranbrook, located in Bloomfield Hills.
The recital is open to the public without charge and concert-goers may enjoy the music of the magnificent instrument while sitting in their cars or on the church lawn.

Collegiate Summer Theater
Schedule Productions
Performances of "The Collegiate Summer Theater" a group of college age students, directed by college drama majors, was scheduled to open June 26, at Edsel Ford High School field, Ronald D. near Outer Drive.
The production staff is headed by Alan McConnell, managing director, and John Whitehead, technical director. All presentations are on a stage providing viewing from three sides.
Productions and dates are: Public Ear and the Private Eye, Peter Schafer and two one-act comedies, July 14-16 — Five Finger Exercise, Peter Schafer and a three-act drama; July 28-30 — Once Upon a Mattress.
Admission is $1 for the first two productions; $1.50 for Once Upon a Mattress. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. There will be an artist's mat in conjunction with all performances by artists from communities.
