Film Classic

HOLLYWOOD—The first album to be taken directly from the soundtrack of MGM's "Gone With the Wind" will be released in August prior to the first roadshow presentation of the screen classic in 70mm, and stereophonic sound.

Numerous "Gone With the Wind" albums, performed by various artists and arrangers, have appeared over the years, but this will be the first official soundtrack from the screen classic. The MGM Records album will consist of 13 selections from Max Steiner's score.

COL. ARTHUR B. JOHNSTON of 28687 Bannockburn, Farmington, presents a retirement plaque to Lt. Col. Dennis S. Johns of Detroit in recognition of superior performance as an instructor with the 5032nd USAR School headquarters in Livonia. Johnston is commandant at the school.

Mrs. Marie Aldrich, of Goldsmith St., will entertain the Pioneer Golden Age Club on Wednesday, July 26, at her home at a cook-out. Everything will be furnished by Mrs. Aldrich. For transportation, please phone Luther Duell at GR 6-4865.

Donna Pariseau, who is employed at National Bank of Detroit, was married to William Katnik of Detroit on June 17. The couple honeymooned in Acapulco, Mexico for three weeks.

Kathy Gals was honored at a miscellaneous shower July 2. It was given by her four aunts: Mrs. Madeline Grode, Mrs. Dorothy Friday, Mrs. Grace Johnston, Miss Rosemary Gals. Kathy married Chester Dismore July 22. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gals of Parker.

Mrs. W. J. Morrisette of Scottsdale, Ariz., is currently visiting her brother and sister-in-law, the senior H.C. Longs of Grand River Ave.

Mrs. Mabel Burgess of Peppermint Rd. returned home June 26 from Warehous, Conn., where she had been with her sister who was seriously ill. Presently another sister, Americans will consume less evaporated milk, condensed milk, cream and butter in the next decade, say Michigan State University scientists.

But they'll drink about the same amount of fluid milk per person and eat more cheese and ice cream.

The scientists point out that less butter will be used on the table, but it may be used increasingly in baked products.

The researchers add that dehydrated dairy products will continue to be popular for the next decade.

Mrs. Loretta Gathrey and her four grandchildren from Albany, N.Y., have arrived to visit Mrs. Burgess and other relatives in Kendallwood and Garden City areas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pagel of Grand River have just returned from a pleasant 10 day visit with Mrs. Pagel's sister, Esther, and her husband, Fred Billette of Hamilton, Mich.

Raymond Leach of Powers Rd. spent a few days recently at An Gies, Mich. with friends, Esther, and her husband, Fred Billette of Hamilton, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Long Jr. and children, Charles and Ann, of Wilkesboro enjoyed a week camping at Mullet Lake, Detroit Attorney William H. Caswell and his wife, Dorothy, were guests of the Harlow A. Gestrachs at the Forest Lake Country Club dinner dance July 15. Caswell has for many years served as Norwegian counsel (in Detroit).
