

Wood Creek Farms

ANNE M. PHILLIPS

Barney Ales and a business associate flew to London the latter part of June on a business trip. They worked as fast as possible so their wives could join them for a vacation. They enjoyed London, Paris, and Amsterdam before flying home July eight. Gus and May Blomberg were in Wood Creek last week. It almost seems as though they were here for but short visits. They spend several winter months in West Palm Beach, Fla. They have a summer cottage on Lake Huron between Harrisville and Oscoda. They came to their Wood Creek home about May 1 as Gus had been in the sun too much and had to have surgery on his face. This was taken care of at the Osteopathic Hospital in Detroit. They opened their summer cottage about a month ago, so it is hard to know where they may be.

DAVE AND HARRIET Gold- man entertained 65 people on Saturday, July 15, at the annual Tau Epsilon Rho legal fraternity annual picnic. Everyone came early and stayed late in spite of the chilly evening. Alan is still in Japan having a marvelous time. He is working in the hospital of his Japanese family and on his days off he and his Japanese brothers go golfing and fishing. Alan describes the recent typhoon as the "greatest" although the town in which he is living was not too badly damaged even though the river rose about 10 feet. The hospital was very busy as many people were killed or injured in the areas where the typhoon hit the hardest.

The moving van was at the Kellers last week. Ed has accepted a teaching post at the U. of M. in Ann Arbor and their home has been sold to Allan and Marie Sultan. They have one daughter. Allan teaches at the University of Detroit, Law School. We wish to extend a warm welcome to them - they should be moving in this week.

I saw signs of life at the new home which has been building on Millbrook for sometime. Bud and Mary McDonald had told me what a nice family was building there, the Josephs, whom they had known for many years as they have owned and operated the drug store across the street from the McDonald Paint Co.'s store. I stopped into meet this family.

Jim and Jean Joseph have four children. Tom, 10, will go to High School. Merry Anne, 19, is attending Mercy College; the two older girls, Eileen, 21, and Jean, 22, are both married and there are two grandchildren.

Jim not only runs a drug store but also a Dixie Land Band. Jim, although he is not a regular member of the band, does play the tuba. Jean told me that she and her husband have been planning this home for 23 years and they look forward to its completion in the near future so they can move in. We look forward to knowing this fine family and wish to extend a warm welcome to them.

Keep House in Good Trim Year to Year

Planning ahead on home improvements keeps your house in good trim, modern and pleasant. It's easier on the family budget, too.

A five-year program makes good sense for many, as it takes into consideration growing youngsters and changing family needs.

"The way to maintain a home's living and actual values," says one expert, "is to keep it up."

"One year, it may mean buying a new living room suite; another, repainting the exterior; another, installing air-conditioning."

The consultant suggests a family conference to plan a five-year home improvement program.

This should result in decisions and a list. Dad and Mom can take it from there.
