ICE CREAM, hot dogs, and little girls couldn't lure these fish out of water. Thoughts of school and snow are far away from the minds of this group of water enthusiasts. The one in the front looks like he might have lost his pet frog somewhere in the pool. They are in a wading pool at Camp Pontchartrain in Farmington.

EXPERT EQUESTRIANS are made not born. This little girl, nicknamed "Shell," has three young trainers who like to "horse around." Shell said that someday she hoped that her horse would grow up so that when she grew up she could still ride her favorite steed.

Los Cabelleros Club Takes Fair Awards

Los Cabelleros Club of Farmington rode away a giant's share of the horsemanship awards, at the Oakland County Fair. Winners announced last Thursday included several champions and grand champions from the Farmington club. In junior class fitting and showing competition Jim Powers was champion and reserve champion was Pam Kopacki.

Jim Powers took first place in the 10-12-year-old fitting and showing contest, with Fred Scheffler third. Pam Kopacki was second in the 13-14 year age group. Los Cabelleros Club also had both the champion and reserve in the senior class fitting and showing. Jan Priebe was champion and Jim Kraft reserve.

In the 15-18 age group Pat Mulholland took first place, followed by Christine Coolidge, second, and Linda Chalfant, third. Sue Latham was sixth. Jan Priebe won the 17-years and over blue ribbon. Jim Kraft was second, Kathy Bush third and Linda Stelter fifth.

Green broken A ribbons went to Terry Hainline and Debra Rasmussen. Linda Stelter won a reining A ribbon. Chris Coolidge was first in the quarter horse pleasure, 16-years and over. Quarter horse 14-year and over awards went to Jim Kraft, first; Linda Chalfant, third; and Terry Hainline, fourth.

Girl Scouts Return From Washington

Girl Scout Troop 804 of Farmington returned recently from a week-long trip to Washington, D.C. and Gettysburg. The 22 girls in the troop were accompanied by eight senior scouts from Troop 258 and leaders Mrs. Margaret Scall, Mrs. Betty Wilson, Mrs. Helen Campbell, Mrs. Bright Reagan and Mrs. Madge Kirby.

The girls had planned, worked and saved for more than a year for the Washington trip. The tour began with Gettysburg battlefield. Washington stops included a visit with Congressman Jack McDonald at the Capitol and tours of Arlington Cemetery, Mount Vernon and the FBI building. The troop also stopped at National Girl Scout Camp Rockwood, near Washington.

Ex-Janitor Commits Suicide

A retired janitor of the Farmington Post Office was found by city police Friday hanging from a joist over his basement steps. Howard Pagel, 67, 33503 State St. Farmington, was pronounced dead from strangulation by the city coroner, Dr. Marlott.

Pagel's niece, Janet Banfield, 34685 Bridgeman called police and told them that Pagel hadn't answered his phone for the last four days. Pagel's neighbors said that they had not seen him since last Tuesday.

Police said that Pagel appeared to have been dead for two or three days.

Participates in Exercise
Army Private Dennis E. Blake, 18, son of Mrs. Betty M. Blake, 22801 Colgate, Farmington, is participating in "Exercise Coral Sands II," a joint-service amphibious assault on the island of Molokai, Hawaii.
