Garden City Knocked Out In Tourney

McFarlane King of Garden City didn't last too long in the inter-city baseball playoffs.

Picked against Dearborn in the first round, McFarlane King was held to one hit in dropping a 5-2 decision.

Deno Syrios, recruited from the Redford Township Big Boy team, hurled for the losers.

The lone Garden City hit was a triple by Bill Holmes, another Big Boy player who was drafted for the playoffs.

Holmes' sock knocked in both the McFarlane King runs in the second inning.

2nd Ace Makes It A Big Day

Charles Small just eats up the 121-yard third hole at Farmington Country Club. In June he made a hole-in-one there.

Sunday Small was playing the same hole. He again took out a No. 7 iron. Yep, that's right—the ball zoomed right for the tee—and in—for another ace.
