

Couple Wed In Plymouth

Sharon Marshman became the bride of Brad T. Schwartz Saturday, Aug. 19, in the First Methodist Church of Plymouth. The Rev. Herbert C. Brubaker officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Marshman, of Plymouth, are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Schwartz, of Lynne Haven, Fla.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a cost-ly lace gown with an oval neckline and long sleeves. Her elbow-length veil was held by a petal headpiece.

Gail Vincent was the bride's maid of honor, and other attendants were bridesmaids Cathy Foege and flower girls Pam Marshman and Adrine Mansoor. Assisting the bridegroom was J. Ignazi as best man.

Music Dedicated To Newlywed Pair

Special music dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Ryduki was sung at their recent wedding in The Peoples Church, East Lansing.

The bride is the former Nancy Jeanne Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Larson, formerly of Farmington, and now living in Milltown, N.J., and the bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryduki, of Manistiquet, Mich.

Mrs. Dorothy McLamery, the bride's aunt, composed the special wedding prayer that was sung by Donald Schramm during the ceremony.

Dr. Wallace Robertson heard the couple's vows.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a gown of white linen with Venice lace at the empire waist, neckline and hem. Her bridal veil was attached to a petal-shaped crown, and she carried white daisies.

Apricot linen fashioned the attendants' dresses, and they carried carnations dyed to match. Judy Osborn was maid of honor, and Donna Fay and Mrs. Jerry Olson were bridesmaids.

The bridegroom's attendants were Richard Larson, as best man, August Golden and Robert Calderin as groomsmen and Louis Cervelli and Jim Larson, as ushers.

A reception was held in the church parlor.

The couple had a western honeymoon, and will make their home in Carleton, Mich.

Both newlyweds hold degrees in civil engineering from Michigan State University. The bride is a graduate of Farmington High School.

PATRICIA HATFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Hatfield, of Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Joy, to James E. McKinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McKinney, of Farmington. Both are graduates of Farmington High School. They will be married Oct. 7.

MARCIA KNIPSCHILD

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Knipschild, of Plymouth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marcia Lee, to Vernon G. West Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. V.G. West of Muskegon, Mich. The bride-elect attended Baptist Bible College in Grand Rapids and is employed by General Motors Corp. Hydraulic Division. Her fiancé attended Muskegon Junior College and Grand Rapids Bible College before entering the armed services. An Oct. 21 wedding is planned.

DAWN WILLIAMS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Williams, of Farmington Road, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dawn, to Eric W. Gingold, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gingold of Great Neck, Long Island, N.Y. The bride-elect is a graduate of Farmington High School and Michigan State University and is continuing her studies in the New School for Social Research while employed by Equitable Life Insurance Co. in New York. Her fiancé is a MSU graduate and attending Brooklyn Law School. He is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity. No wedding date has been set.

GOP Dinner Wednesday

The Plymouth-Northville Republican organization will kick off its neighbor-to-neighbor campaign with a dinner Wednesday evening.

Speaker will be Paul D. Bagwell, twice GOP candidate for governor and now chairman of the United Republican Fund.

Tickets at $3.25 a person are available by calling Mrs. Marjorie Williams at 455-5368 or at the door of Loby's restaurant the night of the dinner. Social hour is at 6:30 and dinner at 7.

Many Student Activities At New Campus

If Mary White, activities director at Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge campus in Farmington, has her way, incoming students will be engaged in a variety of sports and cultural activities their first year at school.

Activities will include intramural sports, a photo club, talk music club, theater group and school paper. The students are free to organize other activities if they wish, and Miss White will assist them.

A lot of literature is necessary to inform incoming students of the various activities. To help, John Smith, manager of the Quartertown office of Metropolitan National Bank of Farmington, presented Miss White a supply of illustrated envelopes to use in distributing information during this fall's registration and throughout the year.

1964 ACCIDENT DEATHS
The Insurance Information Institute reports that 105,000 deaths were attributed to accidents in the United States last year, a 4 per cent increase over the 1963 total.

Vintage Cars At 'Village'

An end-of-summer weekend trip will roll the colorful early days of motoring during the old car festival at Greenfield Village, Sept. 16-17.

Vintage autos of every type and description will be paraded through the Village by their proud owners. Steam, electric and gasoline powered vehicles, dating back as far as the 1800's will be in action during the two-day meet.

The Old Car Festival is included in the regular admission to Greenfield Village. Hours for this special weekend are 9 a.m. until 6 p.m., with ample free parking nearby.

More than 110,000 volunteers join with staff in carrying out programs of the Young Women's Christian Association of the U.S.A.

Thomas Loucks Wed In Grosse Ile

Thomas Michael Loucks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Loucks, of Plymouth, claimed Jennifer Susan Heiden as his bride in the St. James Episcopal Church, Grosse Ile, Saturday, Aug. 12.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid C. Heiden, of Grosse Ile.

A reception in the Grosse Ile Yacht Club followed the ceremony.

The bride wore a candle-light satin floor-length gown overlaid with appliqued English net. Satin banded the sleeves and hem, and a satin bow held her elbow-length veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and shattered carnations.

Mrs. Patrick Conley, of Ann Arbor, wore a floor-length raspberry A-line gown and carried pink carnations surrounding baby roses. In identical dresses and carrying carnations were bridesmaids Susan Cherry, of Grosse Pointe, and Bonnie Loucks, sister of the bridegroom.

Robert Anthony, of Alma, was best man, and guests were seated by David White and Mark Lippincott, both of Ann Arbor. The newlyweds, both graduates of the University of Michigan, will make their home in Bloomington, Ind., where the bridegroom will attend Indiana University Law School.
