

ANNE M. PHILLIPS

More nice gatherings in Wood Creek have given me the chance to gather news. The September meeting of the Franklin Garden Club was Agoes and Philo Wright had their young people from Olean, N.Y. to spend Labor Day with hom. That means that Jim, Ellen, and their two daughters were there. A grees aloud on the their control of the people of their control of th the Franklin Garden Club was held at the home of Eilen Ambrose the first Thursday night of the month. A number of Wood Creekers belong to this club, This was our annual auction. Each member brings auction, Each member brings either garden produce or baked goods, Clifford Baugh, a member who lives in Birmingham, makes a wonderful actioneer. We were delighted to offer tomatoes, cucumbers, and peppers which were in over supply in our garden. CHARLES DYNDA has been in boot training at the Great Lakes Naval Station in Chicago, He is now off on a cruise so the family will not know where his trip took him until his return in a week or

SUNDAY MORNING Dorothy SUNDAY MORNING Dorothy and Eric Jansen had a brunch in their beautiful back yard. Several Wood Creek couples were included in the gathering; also, one former couple, low gand Anita Cooper. The day was crisp and beautiful, the brunch delicious and more than adequate. Eric has a fry pan in which he cooked three dozen ergs at one time!
