Minister Chosen In Plymouth

The Rev. J. Paul Brown, who has served various Churches of Christ in Michigan for 18 years, is the new minister of Plymouth Church of Christ, on Sheldon Road.

He succeeds the Rev. Elbert Henry, who is now working with a congregation in the South.

J. PAUL BROWN

A native of Paris, Tenn., the Rev. Brown is a graduate of Tennessee Business College and Murry University and has studied psychology and marriage counseling at Wayne State University.

He has served in Michigan with congregations at Decker, Warren, St. Clair Shores, Ulva and Van Dyke.

He and his wife, Altha, have three children, Thomas, 18; Cynthia, 14, and Cathy, 10. They plan to live at the church home at 1217 Carol, Plymouth.

He began his ministry in 1941 as pastor in Indiana and served in that capacity until 1964, with an interim of six and a half years as an evangelist.

Mrs. Ford plays the accordion and sings solos and leads the congregational singing.

A special program is planned for the children.

Fords Hold Revivals In Westland

The Rev. James W. Ford and his wife, Ruth, are holding revival meetings in the Elmwood Church of the Nazarene, in Westland, at 7:30 p.m. through Oct. 1.

The meetings began Sept. 20, Ford, a native of Sallit, Kentucky, is an elder in the Church of the Nazarene and now devoting his full time to itinerant evangelism.

He has been a speaker at most of the leading Bible conferences in the United States and Canada. His radio and written ministry have made him well known to many, and his many years as pastor have enabled him to know people and how to apply scriptural truth to life and practice.

The program is public. Week night services are held at 7:30 and Sunday services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Ancient Religious Rite Held In Redford St. Innocent

An ancient religious rite was carried out Sept. 14 and 21 in the recently established American Orthodox Church of St. Innocent, located on West Chicago in Redford Township. The celebration marked the Festival of the Elevation, a religious feast established by the early Christian churches to commemorate the finding by Saints Constantine and Helena of the cross on which Christ was crucified.

It was brought to the church by parishioner Patrick White Jr., who received it while on a pilgrimage to the Shrines in the Holy Land.

The special service opening the St. Innocent fall schedule drew so many worshippers that many could not see the cross, so the patriarch ascended the knoll in the church and raised it high for all to witness.

The congregation cried in unison "Kyrie Eleison," meaning "Lord, have Mercy."

Fall services include the Divine Liturgy at 9:30 a.m. Sunday and Saturday catechism at 10 a.m.

Dr. Andrew Telford, of Boca Raton, Fla., will present a series of Bible studies in the Fall Bible Conference at Calvary Baptist Church, 43065 Joy Road, Plymouth, Oct. 1 to 6.

Lectures will be given from the second book of Timothy. Dr. Telford was pastor of Bethesda Church, of Philadelphia, for 23 years and served as a faculty member of the Philadelphia College of Bible and the Bible College of Washington, D.C.
