You loved it when you bought it, but that was during your "Early American period" . . . Now that you've redecorated your home, some of your lovely furnishings no longer fit in. Don't store them away . . . they're worth money to you. Sell them now, while they still have maximum value, with a result-getting Observer Classified Ad.

Here' all you do: Make a list of the good things that no longer fit your home . . . things like lamps, end and coffee tables, chairs, decorator items such as pictures, plaques, statuettes and vases, drapes or rugs. Then dial GA 2-0900 or 453-5500 and give that list to the friendly Ad Writer who helps you word your ad for quickest results. (A 15 word ad is only $.45 on the special Wednesday-Sunday

Don't wait another minute. Go after the money that's waiting for you today (then you can buy those darling Dansk candle holders you've been wanting).
