

Autumn Presents Many Faces

War Historians Welcomed

Someone with a rich historical lore of the Civil War period in American history can have a whole of a time talking to his heart's content about the battles fought and the heroism of Grant, Lee and the Civil War soldiers.

An agency for slightly disturbed youngsters would welcome a Civil War buff to volunteer an hour or so, any day of the week, and he can visit the youngsters during the day or early evening.

The Oakland County Volunteer Bureau, division of United Community Services, will direct you into this interesting volunteer pastime. Call the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau at 642-7272.

RAKING LEAVES is one of the not-so-pleasant chores of autumn. Richard Cray tackles the leaves that have fallen in his yard on Flanders.

GAYLE BALAWRAK likes apples so much that she picks her own from the tree in her yard on Ridgeway Dr. The five-year-old is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Balawrak.

SUNFLOWERS TURN into seeds each fall and five-year-old Gayle Balawrak scrutinizes the composition of the flower. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Balawrak of Ridgeway Dr.

Leaves, football, pumpkins, Indian Summer days, and a smoky haze in the air are just a few of the things that come to mind with the coming of autumn.

September and October are traditionally the months of autumn and The Farmington Enterprise & Observer staff photographer Frances Evert put together this picture story of autumn in Farmington.
