Christian Film To Be Shown

A Christian motion picture, "World Apart," will be shown at Church of The Savior Sunday, Oct. 29, at 7 p.m.

The church, a congregation of the Reformed Church in America, is located at 38100 Five Mile, just west of Newburgh.

The film is the first Christian motion picture produced.

For more information call the Church at 464-1082.

Bazaar Set

The Faith United Methodist Church, formerly known as the Denton Church, of Belleville, will hold a Harvest Dinner and Bazaar at the church from 1:30 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 2.

IT WAS A BIG DAY in the annals of Faith Lutheran Church, Livonia, when the new educational unit was dedicated recently. On hand were, from left, Bernard J. Geyer, former principal of the Faith day school; the Rev. Fred Balke, also a former principal, now assistant director of the Detroit Council of Lutheran Churches; Curtis Druckrey, Faith board of education chairman; the Rev. Richard H. Feucht, parish education counselor of the English district and speaker for the occasion; and Pastor Ronald C. Starenko.

Fall Style Show Set By CWC

A Fall Fashion Show of custom-trimmed sweaters, knit suits and dresses by Irene Brown, of Southfield, will be modeled by members of the Northwest and Suburban Detroit Christian Women's Club, at 12:30 p.m., Nov. 1, at Devon Gables.

Mrs. Gordon Donaldson, of Farmington, will be the speaker. A graduate of the Multnomah School of the Bible in Portland, Ore., she has taught for eight years at a mothers' club in the Garden City-Wayne area on "The Home and Family Relationships." She also has current classes in the Dunning Park Chapel and another mothers' club in Belleville.

Music for the luncheon will be provided by Leon Anderson, tenor, accompanied by the piano by his wife, Anderson has a master's degree in music and is working on his doctorate at Oakland University, and is Chairman of the Music Department at the Detroit Bible College and is also the choir director at the Evangelical Covenant Church in Detroit.

He has started a community choir of neighborhood people with outstanding voices and they are presently practicing the Messiah which will be sung in Detroit around Christmas time.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Jack Wilkinson on Hollingsworth Drive, Walled Lake, or Mrs. F.G. Barber on Wilson Ave., Royal Oak.

Singing Evangelists Set Meet

The Joe Talley Musical Messengers, known from coast to coast for their musical programs and evangelistic preaching, will return to the Southfield Community Church, for a week of meetings Oct. 30 Nov. 5.

Joe Talley preaches and performs on the trombone, electric steel guitar, and banjo. His wife accompanies him on the piano and organ. Their teen-age son plays the accordion, and their daughter, the flute. Together they have made several recordings.

The meetings are designed to help families gain spiritual help and inner strength for these tension filled days in which we live. All the messages will be Bible based.

Meetings will be at 7:30 p.m., Monday through Friday and on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. On Thursday, the meeting will be preceded by a Father-Son Banquet at 6 p.m.

New Temple Hears Ethridge

The New Temple will sponsor an evening of discussion about Vietnam, with Mark Ethridge Jr., of the Detroit Free Press. The program, the first in the 1967-68 series of community education evenings, is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 7, at 8 p.m., at the Birmingham Unitarian Church, Lone Pine Road and Woodward Avenue, Bloomfield Hills.

Ethridge recently returned from Vietnam where he spent several weeks touring war-ridden areas and speaking to men and women in all walks of life.

DR. KENNETH ARMSTRONG

Concludes Faith Series

Dr. Kenneth S. Armstrong, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene of Detroit, will conclude the series on "Faith of Our Friends" during the evening service at Redford Baptist Church at 6 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 29.

Dr. Armstrong has two doctoral degrees from major American educational institutions, and a wide background in church work, ranging from missionary service, Christian education and pastoral work, to the vice-presidency of Pasadena College.

Dr. Armstrong has been pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene since July 1965, and has shown outstanding leadership in the fields of church administration and property selection.

The service at Redford Baptist, located at Grand River and Seven Mile Roads, will be followed by discussion groups for adults, youth, and children. Members of the First Church of the Nazarene will accompany their pastor to meet with the discussion groups. All interested members of the community are invited to attend.

New Christian Reformed Church Starts Services In Farmington

A new church is getting under way in Farmington Sunday, Oct. 22, with four families, two pastors and unlimited faith.

The University Hills Church, of the Christian Reformed denomination, will hold its first services on Sunday in the O.E. Dunckel Junior High School.

The church is negotiating to acquire land soon in the vicinity of Oakland Hills Community College, and invites all other interested families to join in the opening day services.

PASTOR for the new church will be J. Harold Ellens, now the Christian Reformed Church's home missionary to the greater Detroit metropolitan area.

He will continue in this post along with assuming the new duties for a time, and plans to move to Farmington with his wife, Mary Jo, and their six children.

Sharing the pulpit on an alternate Sunday basis will be Dr. John Henry Krommings, who is president of the Calvin Theological Seminary in Grand Rapids.

Edward Kretz, of Farmington, acting as spokesman for the University Hills Church, said President Krommings was accepting the post of associate pastor because he felt it important for church educators to get back to the pulpit occasionally.

KRETZ, who is advertising manager for K-Mart stores, listed the other families starting the new church as those of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Kuiper, both teachers in the Farmington school system, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Freiling, also of Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Terman, of Pontiac.

Of the church's creed, he said:

"The University Hills Church believes the Bible to be the infallible, inspired word of God and the only rule for faith and practice."

PASTOR ELLENS is a graduate of Calvin College and Calvin Seminary and served five years as a U.S. Army chaplain in this country and in Germany. He has done graduate study at Princeton University and served as pastor of the Christian Reformed Church in Newton, N.J., before coming to the Detroit area.

Dr. Krommings is a graduate of Calvin Seminary and Princeton Theological Seminary, and served churches in Newton, De Plaines, Ill., and Grand Haven, Mich., before going to the seminary as professor of church history. He has written several books and traveled to Scotland, South Africa, Korea and the Netherlands.
