1-4 In Memoriam

IN LOVING Memory of my dear husband Melvin E. Clement, who passed away one year ago, October 28, 1966. What would I give to clasp your hand, your hand in mine. To hear your voice and see your smile that means so much to me. Lovingly remembered by his wife Sadie.

IN LOVING Memory of our father and grandfather Melvin E. Clement, who passed away one year ago, October 28, 1966. It broke our hearts for you to go, because Dear Dad we loved you so. Your death is our heartache, nothing will heal memories of you, our treasures no one can steal. Sadly missed by his daughter Carol, son-in-law Bob and grandchildren, Lori and Tim.

Before You Decide to Sell Your Own Home, Perhaps You'd Better Ask Yourself These Questions

1. Which is best for me: a cash sale, a real estate exchange or the conditional contract sale?
2. Is it necessary to advertise? If so, how extensive?
3. How can I invest the proceeds of my sale profitably in other real estate?
4. How can new financing or assumption of my present mortgage, as well as other mortgage problems be arranged if I sell now?
5. What should my contract be regarding occupancy of my buyer?
6. How can I get all the information on comparative values, and market trends?
7. Is this a good time to sell?
8. How can I avoid wasting my time and money on unqualified buyers?
