

Evangelist At Riverside

The Rev. Pauline Maxwell, of Akron, O., will appear in fall evangelistic services in the Riverside Park Church of God, Plymouth and Newburgh Roads, Livonia from Sunday, Nov. 12, through Friday, Nov. 17.

Sunday services will be at 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m., and the week-day evening services at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Maxwell, one of America's foremost evangelists, is noted for her enthusiasm and concern and help for youth, and her unique Scene-O-Felt presentation, featuring hand-painted, unusual scenes.

Miss Maxwell attended Robert Wesleyan, New York, and Spring Arbor in Michigan. She has worked in the business world, has done writing and traveling with an emphasis on youth.

The public is invited to attend the services. The Rev. J. Clifford Thor, said special music will be featured at each service, as well as nursery care.

United Church Names Livonia Man

Expenditure of close to $11-million has been voted for 1968 by the Board of the United Church of Christ.

James Swanson, of Norwich Road, Livonia, was one of the members from Michigan named to membership on the board at the recent session in Memphis, Tenn.

The Board of Directors approved a budget of $5,967,642 for work in the fields of higher education, church extension, Christian education, evangelism, and health and welfare services. Approximately $2-million more will go out in loans from the Church Building Revolving Fund. The Publications Division anticipates operations in the neighborhood of $3 million.

THE REV. DR. HOWARD E. SPRAGG, New York, treasurer of the Board, said he expects about half of the $5,967,642 budgeted to come from contributions of members of local churches of the denomination. The rest will come from legacies, income on investments and reserves.

The 1968 budget represents a decrease of $129,600 from the 1967 figure of $6,097,242. Over a third of the budget, $2,477,503, goes to the United Church Board's Division of Higher Education and American Missionary Association for work with United Church colleges, academies and seminaries, the program of higher education for Negroes in the South, work in racial and cultural relations, social research and support of campus ministries in 200 colleges and universities.

Riverside Park Building Dedicated

The newly constructed Christian education and fellowship facility of the Riverside Park Church of God, Plymouth and Newburgh Roads, Livonia, was dedicated at services Sunday, Nov. 5.

The new building affords over 6,000 square feet of space for church school, classes, church offices, fellowship hall, kitchen, according to the Pastor, the Rev. J. Clifford Thor, Ground breaking took place on Jan. 22, 1949, now on full swing. Participating in the service were James B. Morison, Detroit, architect; James B. and Edwin Orr, of Orr Brothers, Livonia, general contractor; the Rev. B. Gale Hietrick, Lansing, executive secretary of the General Assembly of the Church of God in Michigan; Robert Majors, chairman of the Building Committee.

Guest speaker for the occasion was the Rev. Arthur Elkamp, missionary to Japan, since 1949, now on furlough. Others sharing in the service:

Dr. E. E. Perry, Detroit, instrumentalist from the congregation participated in the service. A refreshment and fellowship time followed in the new fellowship hall.

It's Christmas Bazaar Time In Area Churches

Bazaars and Christmas sales are the order of the day in churches all over the area. Gifts made by the ladies of the churches, baked and home-canned goods, white elephant tables are featured in most of the sales.

Some offer new ideas, like the evening Christmas Capers offered next week by the women of Orchard Methodist Church in Farmington.

Following are some of the interesting sales that will aid the early Christmas shopper during the next few weeks.
