Sarkis Mekjian and his sister, Mrs. Alice Zakian, of 23911 Wilmarth, are currently entertaining their two nieces, who are on their first trip to America.

Mrs. Nellie Alexanian, of Beirut, Lebanon and Mrs. Mary Naccachian, of Argentina, were happy to have arrived safely. Their uncle, Mr. Mekjian, had seen Mrs. Alexanian in 1959 when he visited Beirut. He had never met Mary Naccachian. The two came to America to see their brother, Mike Mekjian, whom they hadn't seen for 19 years. He is now married and lives in Sterling Town-ship.

This was to have been a great family get together, but upon arriving Sarkis' nieces found out that their beloved Aunt Mary Mekjian had passed away while they were en route. They found out while calling their brother from New York.

The visitors expect to spend the holidays here. This is such a friendly town and colors for these women—something they will long remember.

"Add On" Hairpieces "For Curve!"

Always important but seemingly more so now is the added glamorous variety of Hair Pieces. Height in all coiffures is off to one side, usually dressed into a flare of soft curves. The other side is always dressed close to the head. This creates a split look, a decidedly different look from each side.

Nape hair must be short. A closely fitted nape line is essential when you "add on" glamorous hairpieces. Keep the nape closely fitted and the added hair pieces can be balanced intelligently.

One hundred per cent, how about that for a record? It all started when Mrs. J. Armstrong, of Hunter Whip Lane in Rolling Oaks, had a coffee and the subject matter was The Enterprise & Observer. All 13 families subscribe and their carrier is Ralph Sanst.

The gals from St. Fabrian's again will sponsor a Christmas party for some of the patients at Northville. A call is out for one dollar gifts for at least 35 women in one of the wards. No glass items or pins. Of course, doughnuts will be accepted. For other information call either Viola Agosta 474-9351 or Madeline Fielding 474-2832.

MANY A happening on Peppermill last week. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haggerty and children Julie, Jimmy and Robert, have sold their home and will be moving in the next few days.

A cocktail party was given in honor of Mrs. Clara Haggerty at the home of Mrs. Marge Shields last Thursday. Some of the women in attendance were Mesdames B. Clayton, B. MacLennan, Carol McMan, Ann Broszwick, Joann McCullum and Betty Goetzke.

It was a double celebration at the Shields' home. Yes, on Wednesday last they welcomed their third adopted child, Patrick tips the scales at nine pounds and is one month old. Coleman who will be five and Mike who is two just adore their new brother and congratulations to the folks.

Don MacLennan combined a business and social trip to Kentucky last Thursday. It was a delightful plane trip and that southern fried chicken can't be beat so they tell us.

Bridge was played at the home of Betty Mancke and winner for the nite was Neida Chubak.

Evelyn Bowden last week rolled 64 pins over average in Farmington Lanes curling league play to win the Swinger Contest. A polaroid camera was her award.

MARIAN Marowski was hostess in her home on Green Willow for a bridge party of four.

Set down November 21, it's Open House at Woodlake School in K-1.

Hunting season is upon us and many a hunter is up north hoping to bring home his kill.

How for sure that Lee MacCallum left yesterday while wife, Joann and five daughters are home entertaining house guests.
