Mr. and Mrs. Al Sweet of Quail Hollow spent Thanksgiving visiting grandparents, Mrs. Roy Smith, at Virginia Beach. Incidentally, congratulations to Mr. Sweet who was recently elected president of the Central Kiwanis. Both Al and Ellen Sweet had a nice trip to Texas recently with the Kiwanis.

Rev. Eric and Mrs. Florence Hammar and family hail from Ishpeming, Mich. The children of the family are Eric Jr., Steve and Judy. They all express disappointment that we don't have snow. As you may know, Ishpeming is really ski country and all the Hammar children love winter sports. And oh yes, Judy had a birthday Nov. 21 and there were a few playmates to help celebrate her seventh birthday.

Last Saturday, Andy Scott was 12 and what a celebration. Andy invited David and Andy Ellsworth, Bill Schaeffer, and the Orr boys, to an outing at the Enrico Fermi Atomic Power Plant located on Lake Erie at Lagoona Beach near Monroe. Father Scott was the chauffeur and on top of the home the boys stopped at Howard Johnsons for the final festivities of goodies.

American Hair Fashions Winter 1967

How do American women want to wear their hair in this winter of fashion change, 1967? The country's leading stylists have voted the tempo of the times and, using their creative powers, have executed the most feminine and practical new culture fashions. The result: a new variation on a curly theme.

American artists' variation on the romantic theme set by Paris clothes designers allows wearers for today's woman, the New Woman, to exercise her individuality. The current pretty look almost always states short. But it grows and grows, getting cutler and cutler.

Question?
Now to make a short haircut go a long way, add a hairpiece to the crown for an enticing evening look.

Jean's Suggestion
Popular hairpieces can be curly, braided, looped or twisted and appropriately decorated with bows, flowers or jewels to suit any occasion or costume.

IT PAYS TO INVESTIGATE

When your present car insurance is up for renewal, don't pass a savings opportunity! Dollar for dollar, car insurance from the Exchange at Triple-A offers you the best privileges and protections, quality and service you can buy.

When we make a savings statement, we mean it! Exchange-insured Auto Club members do save dollars on their car insurance. This MONEY BACK is being paid to all voluntary risk policyholders of the Detroit Automobile Inter-Insurance Exchange whose policies expired after July 1, 1967.

Do a little investigating yourself. The membership counselor at your nearby Auto Club office will be pleased to show you how "it pays to belong" to the Auto Club, and insure your car with the Exchange.

Briar Hill NEWS

By FRANK MANN 626-5946

The turkey is all gone (hopefully), college students have returned or are enjoying the last hours of their vacation and thoughts now turn to Santa Claus and what to get for Billy, Nancy, Uncle Joe, etc.

Turkeys were won by Carol Petronio for high game, 203; and Marie Nicol for high over average in the Briar Hill Women's Bowling group. Prizes were also won by Connie Wingle and Jo Wyman but for low game and under average.

The Men's Bowling League gave turkeys to Dean Campbell (Kendallwood) and Dick Martin. Cash prizes were also won by Joe Stephan, Sr., Joe Toilel, Hank Araz, Ken Hopkins, Al McPherson, Jack Emmitt, Des Wyman and Larry MacLeod. Congratulations to all the winners.

THEY MET while they were students at Oakland Community College and last Saturday, Nov. 18, Donald (Skip) Stany and Marcia Wooster were married in the Syrian Lake Lutheran Church.

Dave Stany was best man and Susan Stany was one of the bridesmaids. The happy couple went north for a few days and will be living in Pontiac. Our very best wishes to them both.

The November gathering of the Briar Hill Pinocchio Club was at Rev. and Bob Setzer's on Briarion. Prize winners were Irene Young and Sheldon Watson. Those doing the bidding were the Don Millers, the Jake Hages, the Lyle Youngs, the Sheldon Watsons, the Ben Denaros and of course, the hosts.

On Nov. 28, little David Fox, of Beaumont, will be five years old but several of his friends are helping him celebrate this Saturday the 25th.

Wishing him happy birthday will be Patty Roe, Margaret Callahan, Linda Stinson, Kevin Pattison, Carl Gunderson, Mark Babcock, Rickie Bembs, and Jackie Sue Fagg, from Royal Oak.

THE BEMBS family, of Old Bedford, - Pat and Norm, with sons Richard, David and Daniel left by car for Pompano Beach, Fla. Nov. 3. They enjoyed 10 beautiful days of lovely weather, plus four lousy ones and filled them with swimming, sunning, golf and eating. Sunday evening, Nov. 19, they flew back to Farmington - from 83 degrees to 23 degrees - and, surprisingly, were ready to fly back.

Besides the three boys to keep her busy, bowling on Wednesday, Pat has two horses and rides in shows constantly. She has a wall in her den covered with 104 ribbons for her efforts. Janet Patterson and Marge Scott ride every Friday with Pat giving them pointers - anyone care to join them?

WOULD YOU believe that three Michaels are celebrating birthdays this week and two of them share the same day? Michael Pattison and Michael Callahan have birthdays Nov. 27 and Michael Setzer's is Dec. 1. Happy Birthday, Michael!

AT THE Bloomfield Hunt Club horse show Oct. 29, the Brasserts took four ribbons. There were about 50 contestants. Kim came in fourth in jumping. Cindy took first place in her first horse show in the three-gallop class. Maury took first place in jumping and first in equitation.

On Nov. 16 Maury and Nancy went to Pittsburgh, Pa., where they stayed with friends and attended the Junior League Ball on Friday night, returning home Sunday.

Jim and Marilyn Brown went to Chicago, Nov. 4, to attend the National Armored Car Association convention. This also gave them the opportunity to visit with Marilyn's sister,

I felt so fortunate to catch Sheila Holden at home Monday morning just as she was leaving for V1 Smoke's to work on the Christmas luncheon program. Sheila is a very busy person. Lately she has been working on a project to celebrate Wayne State's Centennial year. There has been a campaign to recruit faculty wives to join the WSU Faculty Wives Club.

There are now about a thousand faculty members but for some years the membership of this club has remained at approximately 350 members. The objective was to recruit an additional 100 members. Knowing Sheila, I am sure no one is surprised that she got 140 new members.

ALSO the Holdens have had another Australian visitor. Ruth Atkins, political science professor at the U. of South Wales, had been at an international conference held in Toronto, Ontario, to study metropolitan problems.

This was really an international conference with representatives from Moscow, Athens, Cairo, and many, many other cities. Prof. Atkins phoned from Toronto and, of course, was invited to come down for a visit. She had a week here with the Holdens before returning to Australia.

Friday, Nov. 10, Wilma Carden entertained 20 members of the Sojourners Women's Club. She served them a desert, they had the business meeting, then played cards.

Family Seeks Housing

A family of four from the Tawas area is desperately seeking housing in the Farmington community to "get on their feet."

Jack Zittler, his wife and two children, a boy of 11 and a girl of six, arrived at the Farmington residence of a cousin, this week immediately seeking help after being put out of work by labor strife.

The 30-year-old mechanic quickly found employment at a Farmington service station, but the shortage of clothing and ready funds persists.

"He's a good man and proved that by his willingness to work," said the local cousin, Richard Truett, of 3505 Meadowlark, who himself has a family of four to feed, clothe and house. For the moment the two families are sharing the same quarters.

"Jack wants to get squared away and get some warm clothing for his youngsters," said Truett. "The biggest need is housing, however, and we will appreciate any leads on possible accommodations."

Dialogue Marks Service At The New Temple

Rabbi Ernst J. Conrad, spiritual leader of The New Temple, will engage in a dialogue with Miss Rose Vainstein, a New Temple congregant, at the Bloomfield Township Library, following worship services Friday evening, Dec. 1. Services start at 8:30 p.m. and the public is invited.

According to Rabbi Conrad and Miss Vainstein, their dialogue will deal with the literary and artistic merits of the book, "The Chosen," as well as with its historical, sociological and religious ideas.
