Carleton Names Farmington Boy '68 Captain

Bill Maury, a resident of North Farmington, was named one of three varsity football captains for the 1968 season at Carleton College. Maury, who received the honor at the College's fall sports banquet, also earned his second varsity letter.

A 210-pound defensive tackle, he was a defensive standout all year. Bill, a junior majoring in government and international relations, has also competed on the wrestling team at Carleton.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Maury of North Farmington.
