Brownie Troop Invests 12 Girls

The family and friends of the Scouts of troop 1059 which meets in Beechview School, Mrs. Carol Stader and Mrs. Jan Hiltchcock co-leaders, attended an investiture of new girls into Girl Scouting.

The new brownies are: Sally Hiltchcock, Linette Willson, Amy Gorguza, Robin Anderson, Susan and Sarah Lukert, Laurie Emmert, Ruth Grabowski, Kimberly Stinoet, Lynn Phillips, Lori Lea Phaffman and Kathy Shea.

Not satisfied with planning and carrying out an investiture, the scouts have been making plans for a Christmas project. They plan to collect mittens and candy canes and, later on, they will get together at a meeting and make a mittentree which will be presented to a Children's Home or Hospital. This sounds like fun to do and it certainly will be worthwhile.

THE FARMINGTON-NOVI Area was well represented at the recent Girl Scout Regional Conference in Chicago by Mrs. E. Schafer, Farmington City Neighborhood Chairman; Mrs. Leona Stidwell, Farmington-Nowi District Chairman; Mrs. Margaret Scall, Cadette leader, Farmington City Neighborhood and Mrs. Bridget Reagan, Senior Advisor, Farmington City Neighborhood.

These volunteers were busy attending sessions on leadership responsibility, the Piper recruiting program, workshops, exhibits and social functions. And now that they are back home they will be kept busy visiting Neighborhood Meetings and giving reports on the activities of the conference.

Activity is the name of the game for the brownies of troop 483 at Flanders School, Mrs. Lou Carr and Mrs. Evelyn McGuire, co-leaders. They recently went on a discovery hike near the school and along the way they collected the nicest leaves they could find to be used in a service project. After the hike they went to the home

ADVERTISE IN THE OBSERVER

Bob Duffy wants $5,000 for a cottage on Lake Michigan.

Last week he added $20 to his NBD Savings Account.

How does Bob expect to get enough money for a summer home with $20 a week? By saving regularly. Bob's been adding $20 to his NBD savings account every week for the last year. At the current rate of four percent annual interest, paid and compounded quarterly, Bob will have $5,733.32 four years from now.

He'll buy his cottage on the lake, and have money to spare.

Bob chose the National Bank of Detroit for some very good reasons. Bob has the convenience of banking at more than ninety offices. He can save by mail. Or, if he wants to save automatically, he can ask the bank to make regular transfers from his NBD checking account.

He'll also have the security of knowing that he's saving at Michigan's largest full service bank.

If you're saving for something special, take a hint from Bob Duffy. Open a savings account at any NBD office.

It could be the beginning of a lot of sunny days.
