Three straight that was the basketball record of Garden City East after the second weekend of play in the 1967-68 season.

Few were surprised. East went into the campaign ranked as a power, and nothing has happened so far to alter the predictions.

INKSTER BECAME East's third victim, 73-54, when East

Allen Park Wins Swim Tourney

Allen Park raced off to honors in the annual Redford Union Invitational swimming meet, scoring 90 points.

Plymouth was second with 62 points, followed by Trenton with 59, Edsel Ford 51, Redford Union 49, Thurston 18, Bentley 14, Stevenson II, Franklin 10 and Bellefonte 2.

All events were contested as relays. This included the diving.

Allen Park won five events and set two records. Trenton accounted for a third mark. Redford Union and Plymouth were the only area schools to win, capturing the 400-yard free style and 200-yard breast stroke, respectively.

The winners:

400-yard medley relay: Allen Park. Time: 4:02.1 (record). 400-yard free style: Redford Union (Masterson, Ringel, Mulina, Valtonen). Time: 5:38.2. 200-yard breast stroke: Plymouth (Smith, Shaw, Gotschalk, Reidas). Time: 2:08.9. 200-yard back stroke: Allen Park. Time: 1:52.2. 200-yard butterfly: Allen Park. Time: 1:46.6 (record). Diving: Edsel Ford. 400-yard individual medley: Trenton. Time: 4:59.1 (record). 200-yard medley relay: Allen Park. Time: 1:48. 200-yard free style: Allen Park. Time: 1:38.4.

turned what had been a fairly close game for three periods into a runaway with a crushing fourth-quarter blitz.

East had gone ahead, 16-8, after one period when Charles Sakmar clicked for five points and Rick Klack and Harold Slade four each.

Slade cut the lead to eight at halftime and the differential remained the same at three-quarters.

Then Mike MacLass, who had been benched with four fouls, came back to the East lineup and the East team stormed off to high gear.

MacLass notched 11 points in the last seven minutes while Klack chipped in with six and Slade with four.

MacLass with his great finish led all scorers with 22 points.

He had 10 baskets and two free throws.

Klack scored 15, Slade 12 and Sakmar and Mike Roth eight each.

The floor play and passing of Slade also drew the praise of the winners' coach.

Stevenson Sinks Lakers, 72-69

The word went out early: "Watch out for Stevenson in the Interlakes League!"

Stevenson wasted no time in making its presence felt in the conference action. The Livonians invaded Walled Lake and emerged a 72-69 winner.

"Anytime you can win away from home, that's really something," said Coach George Van Wagner. Stevenson's team now has a 2-1 overall record in the young season.

JERRY DETTER had six points in the frame for Stevenson while Rusty Gregg, Paul Tonnemacher and Bud Daniels each pumped in four.

But it was Jim Olson who wound up as the top scorer for the winners with 16 points. Detter had 12, Paul Pender II, Tonnemacher eight and Nick Exharos six.

Down Trojans

Garden City West High's swimming team won over Clarenceville, 76-27, in a dual meet.

Bob Herrick led the victors with wins in the 50 and 100-yard free style. Bob Miller (200-yard free), Ken Kinast (individual medley), Jim Webley (butterfly), Jim Rhodes (back stroke), Craig Suter (400-yard free) and Larry Norwood (breast stroke) also won for West.

BIG KEN BOLLIN (52), of Bentley High, practically has the ball on the edge of the hoop as he scores against Trenton in a Suburban Six League game. Dan Doyle (42) and Jim Powers (3) start to move in just in case Ken misses. Bentley won, handily.

Bentley Bounces Trenton Cagers

Bentley high's basketball team erupted early ... and it was pretty easy for the rest of the way as the Livonians bounced Trenton, 64-42, in the opening of Suburban Six League play for both teams.

The Bentley showing proved what everybody had been saying:

"Bentley again figures to be one of the league's kingpins - if not the kingpin."

Powerhouses in basketball are nothing new at Bentley. The Livonians have virtually dominated the circuit over the years.

AGAINST TRENTON, Bentley

Wings On Hot Streak

These are streaking days for the Detroit Red Wings.

Six straight games without a loss—three wins and three ties—and a solid grip on third place in the National Hockey League.

The Wings last week tied New York and Montreal, then scored a 3-2 win over New York and Gordie Howe came out of a sick bed to score a goal and assist and give the Wings a big lift.

BOLLIN ENDED as the top scorer with 21 points on seven baskets and seven free throws. Jim Powers tallied three hoops and five charities for 11 points while Doyle had 4-2-10 to round out the Bentley players finishing in double figures.

Marv Hubert and Gary Haugbush tallied six each for Bentley.

LAYUP SHOT is made by North Farmington's John Mann as two Farmington players move in to block the effort during a tense moment under the basket. The intra-city rivals clashed Saturday night.
