Livonia Gets New Type Gas Station

Livonia city officials and Mobil Oil Corporation executives joined in opening ceremonies for a new Mobil experimental service station at Plymouth and Merriman Roads.

Participating were: Mayor Harvey Moelke; Mobil Great Lakes Division general manager, J.D. Collins; Livonia Public Works director, Robert Shaw; Mobil District sales manager, J.F. Fast; and Mobil dealers, Bill and Bud Ault who operate the station.

Mobil's experimental concept, which combines architectural simplicity with operating efficiency, is a new approach to service station design.

The overall design is enhanced by cylindrical gasoline pumps and oil carousels of bright stainless steel and a circular disc bearing Mobil's world famous Flying Red Horse symbol mounted on the front of the building.

ANOTHER FEATURE of the service building, brilliant in its simplicity, is a side entrance to the service bays. This improves the functional utility of the station and enhances the architectural beauty.

An article in a recent issue of American Home magazine, titled "Must Gas Stations be Garish?" has this to say in praise of Mobil's new stations and the integrated graphics designs.

"The company thus asserts

Bank Awarded State Notes Of $34 Million

A group headed by Bank of the Commonwealth of Detroit was awarded $34.6 million in State of Michigan General obligation Notes.

The notes are being issued for the purpose of providing funds to meet obligations incurred by the State of Michigan pursuant to appropriations for the current fiscal year ending June 30, 1968.

Bank of the Commonwealth will reoffer the notes at an average of 3.50 per cent with maturity on June 17, 1968.
