Korean Orphan Adopted

MEET KIM BONG SOON—This Korean war orphan has been adopted through the Foster Parents' Plan, Inc., by the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington. He is one of seven fatherless children who have lived with his grandmother since his mother deserted the family. The woman's group sends $15 a month for Bong Soon's support and corresponds regularly with him.

Calvary Sets Cantata

The 25-voice choir of Calvary Church, 2850 W. Six Mile Road, will present its annual Christmas Cantata Sunday, Dec. 17 at 7 p.m.

The cantata is the greatest story of the ages, "Love Transcending" written by the modern day composer of cantata music, John W. Peterson. Different members of the choir will be featured in four solo and duet numbers.

Jewish Chanukah Celebrates Miracle

(The following was written by Farmington High School student Michael Cohen as an explanation of the Jewish holiday of Chanukah, which begins this year on Dec. 26.)

During the last week of this month, the Jewish people throughout the world will celebrate the festival of Chanukah (pronounced ha-noo-lah).

Chanukah is the Jewish Festival of Lights. It commemorates the reconstruction of the Temple after it had been destroyed by Syrian oppressors in the year 165 B.C.E. Upon recapturing the Temple, the Jewish people, led by Judah Maccabees, rebuilt and cleansed the Temple and made it ready for services to worship.

The word Chanukah, often spelled Hanukkah in modern day, means dedication. The holiday is called the "Feast of Lights" because the Chanukah candles are lit for each of the eight days the holiday is celebrated.

The candles are in commemoration of the miracle which occurred when the Maccabees rededicated the Temple for use.

Youth Choirs Plan Concert

The 125-voice youth choir of the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian, will present a Christmas concert at 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 17.

Under the direction of Douglas Bayne, the choir and orchestra will present "The Miracle of Christmas Around the World," using a selection of Christmas music from many countries of the world with narrations pertaining to the national origin.

Mrs. Eric Buchanan will accompany on the organ.

The annual Candlelight Carol Service will be held Christmas Eve from 11 p.m. to 12 midnight. In addition to other beautiful music in a lovely candlelight setting, Jacqueline Bartlett will be featured as a harp soloist. This will be a family service providing an opportunity for observing the true meaning of Christmas.

Set Christmas Smorgasbord

The Lutheran Church Women of Good Hope Evangelical Church, Garden City, will hold their annual Christmas Smorgasbord in the church at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 14.

The event will include installation of officers for the coming year and a love show or for the church kitchen. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Verna Raven, PA 1-1125.
