St. Agatha Creamed By Wayne, 71-60

Full Schedule Ahead For Preps

For Three periods, St. Agatha High's basketball team held its own with Wayne St. Mary's Thursday night in a Catholic League game.

Then Wayne lowered the boom.

Specifically, it was Steve Schwartz who did the damage. The score read 48-46 for Wayne going into the closing eight minutes.

But Schwartz hit six quick points while the St. Agatha players couldn't find the range. Before the period was over, Mack Tiscopink with 17 and Schwartz had made four more points and St. Mary's had sailed away a 71-60 victory against the team from Redford Township.

ST. AGATHA led by 17-16 after one period, then fell behind, 24-31, at the half. Jerry Miron caged 19 points for St. Agatha, while Chuck Costello dumped in 15 and Dan Sweeney 11.

Schwartz scored 22 for the winners and was followed by Mack Tiscopink with 17 and Bill Jaskolski with 13.

This is the week when all the prep teams plunge headlong back into action.

A full schedule of action is booked on the basketball front, along with swimming, wrestling and gymnastics.

Teams in the Suburban Six, Interlakes and Northwest Leagues all resume title action after taking a respite for the holidays from loop play.

BENTLEY, WHICH took charge in the pre-Christmas competition in the Suburban Six

League and then reached the finals against Ypsilanti before bowing in the Christmas tourney, 52-50, invades Allen Park Friday.

Meanwhile, it'll be Plymouth at Belleville while Redford Union hosts Trenton.

The Northwest League features a pair of area showdowns—Thurston at Glenn and North Farmington at Franklin.

Another battle involving Oshkosh and St. Joseph's of serverland teams will pit Stevenson against Farmington at Farmington on Friday evening.
