It's just grand, say the members of the Ralph Downey family of Farmington Road, to have this wonderful, enthusiastic 18-year-old exchange student, Brenda Rizzo, from Montevideo, the capital city of Uruguay.

They tell me she is just wild about our American candy bars and Danone Dorel, her American sister, keeps close tabs on her so she won't end up stuffing herself completely with candy.

THE REPUBLICAN 19th District Committee, met Jan. 25, at the W. Bloomfield Township Hall with a good attendance. All Republicans are welcomed at their monthly meetings.

Following the committee business meeting, comments from the audience are heard. Their meetings are held on the fourth Thursday of each month.

You might like to send a sunshine card to Mrs. Evelyn Kauffman of 20444 Farmington Rd. She has just returned home from Providence Hospital where she had corrective surgery, which was a result of a car accident last March.

Farmington Garden Club held a board meeting Jan. 25 at the home of Mrs. Robert Crompton, 33353 Colony Park Dr. where plans were formulated for the coming year's busy schedule.

THAT HIPPIE Farewell party, hosted by Mary Ann and Bud Gasser of Valleydale Dr., in honor of Lucy and John Perz of Thorndike, we hear was a blast. Mrs. Gasser decorated (or undecorated, if you wish) the premises to add to the authenticity of a hippie den. There were papers scattered, furniture and pictures were askew and askance.

After the buffet luncheon, a cake decorated in frosting of psychedelic colors, added a touch to the atmosphere. They didn't know they could acquire the aura of a hippie in such a short time, but guests did a magnificent job in costuming.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Adam Gasior, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Fritz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hebbel, Mr. and Mrs. Don Lang, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Bob McCrumb, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sisk, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Larson.

On Sunday morning, Gerry and Lila Ellsworth of Hunters Row, in Quaker Valley, hosted a family brunch for the John Perz family.

RONALD J.G. TIPPING of Farmington has been named as one of 10 National Award of Merit winners by the American Society of Tool and Manufacturing Engineers. The awards are presented annually in "recognition of valued balanced contributions to the society's professional activities and growth."

Tipping is a charter member of the Rouge Valley Chapter #190 of the society. He heads Carbott Incorporated of Livonia, a subsidiary of Farmington's Futurill Inc.

Library Leader Dies

Edward Nicholas Moseman, 79, of 33203 Biddesdon Lane, Farmington, died Jan. 25 after a brief illness.

Services were held Jan. 27 in Thayer Funeral Home with the Rev. John J. Fricks, of Holy Cross Episcopal Church of Novi, officiating.

He is survived by his wife, Anne.

Long prominent in civic affairs at the county and local level, Mr. Moseman was appointed to the first Farmington District Library Board when that board was created by Michigan Act 164.

Mr. Moseman was a graduate of the University of Michigan, the University of Chicago and the Detroit College of Law. While in Chicago he was affiliated with the Chicago Little Players Group. He became an authority on Shakespeare and was known for his informal recitations of that poet's works.

Until his retirement, Mr. Moseman was general counsel for the Standard Accident Insurance Company. For many years he served on the Board of Trustees of Olivet College and did some volunteer teaching at Olivet during a teacher crisis.

The family requests that memorials be sent to the Olivet College Library or to the Farmington District Library.

Victim Fights For Life

The condition of an 18-year-old Madison Heights youth injured in a Farmington Township car-truck crash Jan. 25 still was classed as "critical" by a spokesman of Bofors General Hospital early this week.

Meanwhile, as Lawrence Troha fought for his life, funeral services were conducted Monday for 16-year-old John Rice following his death in the same accident.

The third occupant of the convertible in which they were riding when hit by a loaded sand truck at Eight Mile and Farmington Rds., George Lash, was said by a Bofors official to be in "good" condition. It was Lash who was driving the car.

Police investigation of the accident has not been completed.

All three boys were residents of Madison Heights and were close friends.

Funeral services for the Rice boy were conducted in the Price Funeral Home, Troy, and interment was in Oakview Cemetery. There and sisters, in addition, he is survived by four brothers and his parents.
