Couple To Make Home In Plymouth

Charlene Joy Elenbaum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Elenbaum, of Pigeon, Mich., became the bride of Samuel L. Dibble in a ceremony Friday, Jan. 12, in the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church, Milford.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Dibble, of Thornapple Lane, Northville.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Barbara Westfall, of Plymouth. Robert Stewart, also of Plymouth, was best man.

A wedding dinner, in the Round Table Club of the Mayflower Hotel, followed the rites.

The couple will live in the American Heritage Apartments, Plymouth. Both are graduates of Central Michigan University. The bride teaches music in the Milford Junior High School, and her husband is employed by the National Bank of Detroit.

Alpha X Delta Alumnae Hear Decorator

Alpha Xi Delta Western Wayne County alumnae will meet at 8 p.m., Tuesday evening, Feb. 13, to hear one of their members, Mrs. David Bowen, speak on the "Many Facets of Interior Decorating."

Hostess for the meeting will be Mrs. W. Dale Wassell, 13399 Cranston, Livonia.

All alumnae living in the Livonia, Plymouth and Dearborn areas are invited to hear Mrs. Bowen, a professional interior decorator. Those planning to attend may call Mrs. Jack Lane, GA 2-1284, or Mrs. Richard Zier, 427-4411, who are serving as co-hostesses.

Mrs. John Hopkins, of Plymouth, president, said the group will celebrate Founder's Day this year on Saturday, April 27.

Couple Is Married In Candlelight Rites

Margaret Ann Harding and George Cameron Coggins were united in marriage in a candlelight service Saturday, Jan. 27, in the First Methodist Church of Farmington.

Dr. W.L. Williams and the bride's grandfather, the Rev. Stuart A. Parvin, of Philip, S.D., officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Harding, of Valleyview Drive, Farmington, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coggins, of Galesburg, Mich.

THE BRIDE WORE a gown of ivory tulle with a bodice of French silk illusion, alençon lace and seed pearls. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a crown of lace and pearls, and she carried a nosegay of miniature white carnations, baby pink roses and white star flowers on an antique Bible, gift of a friend.

Mrs. Ralph E. Mitchell, as her sister's matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of pink velvet and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and white star flowers.

Wearing red velvet gowns and carrying pink nosegays were bridesmaids Margaret Angert, of Royal Oak, Kerri Scofield, of Mt. Clemens.

Nursery Parents Hear Of Racism

Two speakers will discuss "racism in Detroit" at the meeting of the Bushnell Child Study Club at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 27, in Bushnell Congregational Church, Detroit.

They are Frank Joyce, executive secretary of People Against Racism, and James Lafferty, of Neighborhood Legal Services. Fathers of the nursery will be invited.

'Overture To Opera' Planned In Northville

'Overture to Opera' a preview for residents of this area to the forthcoming visit of the Metropolitan Opera to Detroit, will be presented in Northville High School auditorium at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 6.

The program will include the opera "The Medium" by Menotti, and the first act of Verdi's "La Boheme."

Dr. David D'Amico, of Oakland University and the Detroit Grand Opera Association, will direct the performances.

THE PROGRAM, which is given in several locations throughout the Detroit area, ushers in the 1968 Metropolitan Season, running May 20 to May 25. As an educational project, "Overture" also brings excerpts to many more people than the Metropolitan Auditorium can accommodate.

Tickets for the Northville performances are available for both adults and students, and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Donald Ware, 349-2230, and Mrs. Harold Wright, 349-1276.

An after-glow champagne buffet at the Meadowbrook Country Club will follow the performance and Mrs. Ware and Mrs. Wright also have tickets for that affair.

THE METROPOLITAN appearance will include three new productions, including a reworking of Bizet's "Carmen." The other innovations are first-time-in-Detroit performances of "Romeo et Juliette" by Gounod, and Verdi's "Luisa Miller."

"Luisa Miller," with Montserrat Caballe, Sandoz Kony, Bumbry, Mary Ellen Pracht, Nicola Gedda, and Justino Diaz will perform Bizet's "Carmen," with Alain Lombard conducting.

FRIDAY EVENING Francesco Molinari-Pradelli will conduct Puccini's "Madama Butterfly," with Teresa Stratas, Sandoz Kony, and Theodore Lambros.

Saturday's matinee will be Puccini's "Tosca," with Gabriella Tucci, Richard Tucker, and Anselmo Colantoni. Fausto Cleve will conduct.

The final opera, on Saturday evening, will be Gounod's "Romeo et Juliette."

Thursday evening, Grace
