WSU Accepts Scripts For Contest

Scripts are now being accepted for Wayne State University's 1968 Playwriting Contest, according to Dr. Vincent Wall, associate professor of English and contest committee chairman.

The contest is sponsored annually by the Department of English.

The Greater Detroit Motion Picture Council is contributing the award money for the sixth consecutive year in an effort to interest and encourage writers in the caliber of writing which may serve as a basis for the production of quality motion pictures. Awards are possible in three categories—full length play, one act play and children's play.

Prize-winning plays will be considered for production by the University Theatre, which reserves the option for first production rights for one year.

The contest is open to any person who has enrolled at Wayne State University sometime during the two years prior to the contest deadline, March 15, 1968.

Rules and application forms are available in the English Department office in State Hall and the University Theatre office at the Hillberry Classic Theatre.

But there's a steady increase in the number of people who are saving just to have that good "money in the bank" feeling.

If you're not now putting your money in the bank, NBD can help you. Start with as little as ten dollars. Then deposit a little each week. And watch it grow. Save ten dollars each week, for example, and you will have almost $2,300 in just four years, based on the current rate of interest.

NBD has more than 95 offices. So, there's bound to be an office near your home or work. NBD pays and compounds an annual rate of 4% interest, quarterly. This encourages you to keep your savings where they belong . . . in the bank and continuing to earn.

And you can save automatically by having money transferred into Savings from your Checking Account. You don't even have to come in to make a deposit. NBD does it for you.
