

Peggy Ann May Get U.S. Olympic Crown

GREENSBORO, France — Peggy Ann Fleming appeared in a flashy Saturday to become the first United States gold medal winner in the Winter Olympics.

Miss Fleming, of Colorado Springs, Colo., all but had the figure skating championship wrapped up after two brilliant days of effort on Wednesday and Thursday.

THE 19-YEAR-OLD Miss Fleming, who also hints that she may be married when she returns to the United States, piled up a 77.0-point lead over her nearest rival in the five-figure compulsory events.

The performance of Miss Fleming was the bright spot of the American showings during the early days of the Games.

THE HOCKEY TEAM dropped two in a row, bowing to Czechoslovakia, 5-1, and Sweden, 4-3, and faced another loss at the expense of the Russians, who had won their first two starts.

Meantime, Billy Kidd, premier American skier, suffered a sprained ankle and it was questionable just how well he might do.

A 24-hour postponement in the skiing events, caused by the weather, was seen as a "break" for Kidd.

Redford Union High School basketball team appear to have gone out the window.

A 63-55 beating by Villanova leave the Titans with a 19-9 record with six games still to go.

The Titans had one of their worst shooting nights in recent years. They clicked on only 24 per cent of their tries from the field.

A SPRING wild turkey hunt in Michigan next year? It could be. Game biologists have asked the Conservation Department to approve such an event.

Sports Holds Attention On Weekend TV

The Winter Olympics from Grenoble, France, highlight this week's sports television schedule.

Detroit's Channel 7 will feature at least two programs daily, including the windup to the women's figure skating championships Saturday in which Peggy Fleming of the U.S. will be the favorite.

Skiing, slalom competition, bobsledding and hockey will be among the events spotlighted on the telecast which will be beamed to the U.S. via the Early Bird satellite.

College and professional basketball, featuring games involving the Detroit Pistons and UCLA with Lew Alcindor, also will be presented.

So will the back-to-back weekend hockey series between the Montreal Canadiens and Chicago Black Hawks and the Red Wings' final appearance against the Rangers in New York's old Madison Square Garden.
