

U of D Mothers Set Gala

Memories of the fabulous '40s will be the order of the evening in the annual gala to be sponsored by the University of Detroit High School Mothers' Club at 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 17, in the high school gym. Wally Engels and his 10-piece band will furnish music, and there will be special entertainment for both parents and the U. of D. students and their dates.

Proceeds from the affair will be used to build departmental stations on the balcony of the school library so that each department in the school will have a special alcove for research books and papers and desk space for teachers.

Mrs. Frank Chambers, of Livonia, is president of the Mothers' Club.

Other members in this area planning to attend the gala are Mr. and Mrs. B. Burke, Mr. and Mrs. G. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. W. Fugolo.

FLASHBACK TO THE FORTIES -- The U. of D. High School Mothers' club will turn back the calendar to the era of the 1940's for their Gala Nite at 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 17. Above are, left, Mrs. Frank Chambers, of Livonia, Mothers' Club president, and her son, William, and Mrs. A. R. Dulzo and her son, John, of Farmington.
